THE NEW CHURCH.

NEW YORK, August 28.--Additional foreign intelligence concerning the Dollinger movement in Germany reports that at a meeting of the Liberal Catholics at Heidelberg, August 5th and 6th, which was attended by some forty delegates, representing the countries of Bavaria, Prussia, Austria and Switzerland, it was resolved that the coming Congress of anti-Infallibility of Munich, September 22d, should have public discussions of the church question on the new declaration issued, and the Catholics of every nation will be asked to attach themselves to the movement. The Dollinger Catholics, though placing little reliance in the action of the Government, feel sanguine of the support of Prussia, by which it is expected the initiative war steps will be taken. There is nothing expected from Bavaria, although the action of the governmet of that country in refusing to sustain the ecclesiastical sentence in the case of a pastor who, though excommunicated, continued in the exercise of his functions, is regarded as a hopeful sign. The governments will sooner or later have to decide upon the demand which is proposed to be made by the anti-Infallibilists for acknowledgment in the Catholic Church, and as being entitled to church property, and this may be pressed so as to have to take distinct measures. There is great anxiety manifested by the Liberals as to whether the Papal anathemas will be visited upon the university at Munich, over which Dollinger has now full charge.

CLERICAL TROUBLES.

Mail advices from Germany recently received in this city, state the Catholic Casino at Munich has expelled a number of its members who have voted for a school regulation abolishing the right of interference by priests. Clerical organs are represented to be so destitute of funds that some of them will shortly be compelled to discontinue publication.

THE CHOLERA.

Mail advices from Europe state that according to the official register the deaths from cholera for the week ending August 12th, at Koenigsberg, amounted to forty-four, fifteen being children under eleven years. The persons attacked by cholera belong almost exclusively to the lower order of society. The disease is attributed generally to want of food and in uncleanliness. Only very few have suffered of the better educated class. Trades people and artizans have suffered, but hardly any of the middle and upper classes.

Emperor Francis Joseph will be accompanied by Von Beust. A firm basis is laid at Gastein for relations whereby Germany and Austria are to assume a joint attitude. Italy has unconditionally agreed to the same policy, and communications have passed between the three governmens looking to the establishment of a complete understanding.

THE COMING RACE.

HALIFAX, August 28.—All the crews are now here. The great four oared race will come off at ten o'clock on Wednesday. With the exception of the Prior, all the crews want smooth water. The boat of the Prior crew being larger than the rest, they would have the advantage in rough water. The Taylor-Winship crew is now the favorite. Among the English crews the St. Johns Paris crew is rather the favorite, but the Americans are freely backing the American crews, who are rowing well. There is a good deal of betting on the Paris crew, with reservations, however, that if the crew does not start, owing to rough water, the bets will be off.

ST. JOHNS, August 28.—It is understood that the Paris crew will not row at the Halifax regatta unless the water is smooth.

The Late Railroad Collision

BOSTON, August 28.—The terrible rail road accident of Saturday night becomes more sickening as the details are developed. The cause of the accident was simply that the engineer on the express train choose to plunge his train into one standing at the station before him. The Beverly accommodation train made several stops to get passengers on at way stations. Meanwhile the express train from Bangor left on time and ran at the highest attainable rate of speed. Before it started Superintendent Prescott sent a special order to the engineer to be careful, as there was a train ahead of him. The conductor of the accommodation train, warned of a train behind him, caused two red lanterns to be put on the rear platform, but it seems no attention was paid to orders, and the responsibility of this carelessness must rest somewhere. At the scene of this awful disaster there is little to be seen. In the ditch at the side of the road still smoke the embers of the burned cars, but this is almost all which tells of the disaster. In town, in the hall of the Revere House, still lie half a dozen ladies. They are horrible to look at. Bloody foam lies upon their black, swollen lips, their eyes protrude from their sockets, discolored patches of flesh hang loose from their cheeks, and great flaps of boiled skin dangle from their hands. They have been crushed, cooked and tortured, and deeper than all were the physical disfigurements. One sees something here still more awful to look upon in their faces, a haunting look of unspeakable agony. The officers of the road were almost crazed by the accident, and seemed not to know what to do. The killed and wounded were nearly all Boston, Salem and Lynn people.

Two additional deaths by the railroad isaster occurred to-day. The papers this morning unite in demanding a full investigation into the cause of the catastrophe, and stern judgement upon those who are responsible.

An inquest will be held near the scene of slaughter on the bodies of the persons killed outright. Another inquest will be held at the City Hospital on the bodies of those who died there.

The Coroner's jury met this afternoon in regard to the Revere disaster. It is composed of Dr. Jas. B. Forsath, Coroner, Jonathan Harrington, Andrew Burham, John H. Proctor, Chas. Bird, and Colonel Porter, with Dr. Jacob Mitchell, of Chelsea, as clerk. The investigation was held in the town hall at Revere There was a large attendance of interested citizens, including many railroad people.

The first witness called was John S. Newland, conductor on the Eastern railroad, who testified that the regular time of starting the Accommodation train was 7:30 o'clock; was very late last Saturday night, it being 7:45 before starting; proceeded without interruption until arriving at Summerville; started and ran to the Saugus branch, where I saw a train coming round a curve; signalled the train, which saw us and stopped it afterwards; spoke to my engineer, who said we could go along after a delay of eight minutes at the Junction I ran down daily to Everett from Chelsea; stopped there one and one half minutes and ran to Revere; after the passengers had alighted the word was given "all right;" swung my lantern to start; I cannot say whether the train started or not; some one on the platform said "here comes the train;" I immediately jumped between the tracks, and swung my lantern; not a minute elapsed before the crash came; there was not time to do any more before the collision; to the best of my knowledge it was a quarter to eight o'clock when my train started; I knew that the express train was not in sight; I had three cars and a baggage car in my train; I had orders to start as soon as possible; the rule is to carry tail lights; they were white in color and attached, burning, to the rear of the cars, when I arrived at Revere station; the detention at the Saugus branch of eight minutes, was occasioned by the half past six o'clock train; I did not discover the express train till it struck me; I first discovered the express train at Everett; the train was approaching at a rapid rate; I could not tell whether the steam was shut off or not; the train appeared to be under full headway; I know the engineer of the express train; his name is Wm. Brown; did not hear any whistle from his train; could not say whether he could hear or not; I call thirty-five miles per hour a rapid rate; should judge it was running at that rate; had the right road according to the rules; the use of lanterns on the rear of the train is to notify an approaching train; an invariable rule is to stop when these signals are seen; it is an understood rule that no train is to be within a half mile of the preceding train; the instrutions are printed; it would require ordinarily one and a half or two minutes to pass over the distance of half a mile; I should think it would require the distance of a quarter of a mile to break up a train running at the rate of thirty-five miles per hour; the condition of the weather was overcast. but clear; I did see a light half a mile distant that night; the light could be seen a mile in a straight line; I was on the rear end of the car before arriving at Revere; the first intimation I had was the man singing out from the platform, "train coming;" did not see the man that tended the switch at the depot; think the man that jumped to the middle of the track showed a light, and this man was at my left hand, some seven feet in advance, when the train struck; I was delayed half an hour at the Boston depot, but could not tell the reason; the train was made and put into the depot; the master assistants make the train; some trains start on time; have been on the road twenty-one years, and during that time have been timer when trains don't start on time; the camp meeting detained the starting on time by their being too heavy, the trains being a good deal more late during the last ten days than usual; the delay is more in Boston than any other place; have never made a complaint of the making up of a train or the time of starting; receive orders in running time from the start when behind time as soon as possible without any signal; the superintendent has never complained of my starting behind time during a term of twenty-one years; Lunt, depot master, says that on that night the master superintendent told him to get out of the depot as soon as possible; did not receive any caution that night; did know the express was to follow; with ordinary delays the express would not reach my train before arriving at Revere; did not speak to any one as regards the starting of the express train, and had no more than the usual anxiety on the night in question; after the collision neither of the engineers in my train were disabled to my knowledge; I dispatched an engine to East Boston for help; sent a team for Supt. Prescott and another to Chelsea; have received instructions to send for help, physicians, &c., in case of accident; did not look at my watch from the time I started until midnight; gave no orders to run faster than the usual rate that night; in case of two trains starting, the rear train is to look out for the train ahead; it was understood that the train had the right of way, and the burden of responsibility rested on the train following; the trains at Boston, in the absence of the superintendent, are started by the depot master; left with the understanding that the superintendent would take care of the train that started after me; I have made no complaint of being crowded for time; never saw before that night a Pullman train; my cars have been built several years, of Monitor pattern; did not expect the Express train would pass before my arrival at Beverly; did not attempt to switch off; did not consider it would overtake me if the signal of danger was seen by the engineer; would consider him solely responsible; knew Brown, engineer of the Express train; never saw him intoxicated; never heard he was intemperate; never knew him use liquor; have not heard he was under the influence of liquor.

At this point the jury adjourned until to-morrow.

Two of the victims of the railroad disaster still at Revere were identified to-day as J. I. Kelly, of East Boston, and Maurice Connell, of Charleston. The third is a woman, apparently about twenty-six years of age, whose remains are unknown.

Wm. A. Rilfe, of Beverly, whose name was given among the killed as W. A. Peli, was a member of the firm Boyce, Trick & Co., 43 Milk street Boston. The number of deaths are now stated at thirty. The folowing are additional names of wounded: S. O. Thayer, printer, badly scalded; Louise Hatch, Charlestown, burned. not seriously; C. H. Stalkin, South Salem, arm broken and seriously scalded; Edward Haley, scalded on head and hands, and crippled feet and legs; F. B. Cotton, severely scalded about the face. Miss Foster, of Providence was conveyed to that city to-day.

The funeral of Dr. Garnett will take place to-morrow noon from Arlington Church.

Suits for damages against the Eastern Railroad Company, for injuries received in the collision have already been filed for about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

A VIOLENT GALE.

A violent gale from the northwest visited Boston and vicinity at 11 o'clock last night. At Arlington the steeples of the Unitarian and Orthodox churches were blown down. The damage is estimated at $25,000 or $30,000.

DROWNED.

Three men, named Underwood, Hastings and Broon, were drowned by the upsetting of a boat in which they were fishing, in a pond south of Orange, on Saturday.

OSAGE INDIAN LANDS.

The Weather Report.

CHARLESTON CUSTOM HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, August 28, 1871.

APPOINTED.

John J. Knapp, of Michigan, has been appointed Special Agent of the Post Office Department to investigate the mail depredations in Michigan and Indiana, vice Redfield removed.

THE WEATHER.

The area of lowest pressure in New York has moved eastward of our stations. The high barometer of Sunday evening on Lake Superior has extended east and northward, and is now beyond our stations. The area of low barometer which was then in the Indian Territory has moved north-eastward and is now in central and northern Illinois. Its influence extends south-eastward to the Blue Ridge, and northward beyond Lake Superior. The barometer has fallen most rapidly from that lake to Lake Erie. Southerly winds with cloudy weather and occasional rains are reported from Northern Georgia to Ohio, and northwest and easterly winds from Lake Superior and Minnesota. Partially cloudy and clearing weather northeast of Maryland.

Probabilities—Southerly winds, with cloudy and rainy weather, are probable on Tuesday on the Southern and Gulf coast; clearing weather from Wisconsin to Arkansas and westward. The area of lowest pressure will probably move northeastward over Lake Huron, with rain and fresh southerly winds on the lower lakes and easterly winds on Lake Superior; threatening weather and light rains in the Middle and Eastern States. Dangerous winds are not anticipated.

TIME EXTENDED.

At the suggestion of Senator Pomeroy the Secretary of the Interior has extended the time for the payments from the Osage Indian lands for sixty days, in order to enable them to make use of the proceeds of their crops for that purpose. The President has ordered the removal of the land offices at Humbolt and Independence, to take place on the 20th of September. This change was made to accommodate the Osage settlers.

CLOSING OF THE CHARLESTON CUSTOM HOUSE.

The temporary closing of the Custom House at Charleston, S. C., in consequence of the yellow fever at that port, has been considered here, and is possible, owing to the fact that the Collector, Deputy and most, if not all, the clerks are unaclimated to that part of the country. The Custom House may be closed for thirty days, or until the disease is reported subsided.

MOBILE.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

MOBILE, ALA., August 28.—The low-pressure steamer Ocean Wave exploded her boiler at half past five o'clock on Sunday afternoon, at the wharf at Point Clear There were about two hundred excursionists on board, fifty to sixty of whom were killed and wounded. A portion of the bodies were brought to this city by the steamer Fountaine and Annie, last night. The others are to be brought here to-day. Efforts are being made for the recovery of the bodies drowned. The cause of the disaster has not been ascertained, and an investigation is to be made. Out of seven persons, comprising one Creole family, six were killed. The captain, engineer and pilot were killed. Only three officers escaped.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

The steamer Ocean Wave left this city on Sunday morning with about two hundred persons on board for an excursion to Fish River, about twenty miles from the city. On the return trip, the boat reached Point Clear at five P. M., and made fast. The band and part of the passengers went ashore and after the lapse of half an hour, the whistle was blown and all returned to the boat. They had just got on board when the boiler exploded with great force, followed by a rumbling and hissing sound, and fragments of the timbers of the boat and metal of the boiler was blown in every direction. The forward part of the cabin was carried away and the chimney fell upon the after cabin and crushed it. The boat almost immediately sank, and her bow is now submerged. About sixty or seventy persons were killed or injured by the explosion. So far the bodies of nineteen dead, eight of whom were ladies, were recovered. Twenty-eight wounded persons were brought to the city, and one of them, a girl, has since died. The scene was appalling and heartrending. Wilder grief was seldom witnessed many of the passengers were little children. Captain Wm. Eaton swam for some time with both legs broken. A boat reached him just too late, and he went down. Two pilots were killed. The firemen were all killed, and the engineer and his wife are injured severely. It is impossible to correctly estimate the loss of lives. By some it is supposed that there are at least thirty or forty persons still burried in the debris of the wreck or at the bottom of the bay. A diver has gone to the scene of the disaster. The accident has cast a gloom over the whole city, and universal sadness prevails. The streets are crowded with people, and the excitement and feeling is intense. The Ocean Wave has been for some time considered an unsafe boat, and has always been unlucky. The appearance of the boiler indicated that it had yielded through rottenness, as it had been torn apart in a long the seam. Had it exploded with greater violence, the destruction of life would have been more general. The force of the explosion was directed upward and forward.

TENNESSEE.

To be Tried.

MEMPHIS, August 28.—The case of Jack Allen, accused of poisoning his wife, will come up to-morrow. The coroner is much censured for acting on information given in an anonymous letter concerning it.

COLORED KU-KLUX.

Thirty masked and disguised negroes rode into Commerce, Miss., on Thursday and remained there that day and the next, but beyond threats, had committed no violence at last accounts.

NEW PAPER.

The Daily Press, a new afternoon paper, made its appearance to-day. It is edited by W. H. Rhea and W. O. Woodson, formerly of the city press. It is a member of the Associated Press.

PARDONED.

NASHVILLE, August 28.—W. H. Wisener, junior, convicted Saturday by the Circuit Court of Bedford county, of maliciously shooting E. B. Stahlman, express agent, and sentenced to five years imprisonment in the penitentiary, was pardoned to-day by Governor Senter. His father was a Republican candidate for Governor last year, and a distinguished lawyer and politician.

ARKANSAS.

Released.

LITTLE ROCK, August 28.—Gen. Doudridge McRea and Col. Jacob Frolick, who left the State during the militia troubles in 1869, for whom Governor Clayton offered a reward of five hundred dollars each, and who were indicted in the White county Circuit Court on a charge of Ku-Kluxing, and a short time ago and gave bonds, were tried on Saturday last at Searcy. The jury returned a verdict from the box of not guilty, and the defendants were released.

PATRONAGE REFUSED

THE WESFIELD EXPLOSION.

At the General Session to-day, Recorder Hackett delivered a lengthy address to the jury who were re-assembled to consider the bills of indictment against the parties charged with criminal negligence at the late explosion of the boiler of the Westfield. He called attention to section sixteen by which the captain and engineer or other person responsible were deemed guilty of manslaughter in the third degree, if the boiler explodes, and life is lost through gross negligence of such officers, and section nineteen, by which every other such killing, not murder, is manslaughter in the fourth degree. If the inspector did his work negligently, he should be indicated under the latter section. He also directed them that if the President or Superintendent of the Ferry Company had such notice of the incompetency of the engineer, or any one in charge of the boiler, as to require greater care and a more rigid inspection than was exercised, the Grand Jury should not inquire if these officials did not contribute to the result by culpable negligence. The first section would also apply to the engineer. If common carriers could be made responsible for accidents to passengers a great and beneficial example would be made. With the whole nation looking to this jury's judicial action in reference to this catastrophe, the Court, the Grand Jury and prosecuting officials should give no room for after reproaches from any quarter.

THE CITY FRAUDS.

The Democratic Germans of this city are beginning to take action in reference to the alleged frauds in the city treasury. Yesterday the German Democratic Executive Committee met and adopted a motion that the German Democratic Executive Committee recommend to the German General Committee to adopt resolutions declaring themselves opposed to fraud, corruption and dishonestly in public offices, and that if the gentlemen accused of malfeasance in office do not immediately relieve themselves of the odium and prove themselves innocent of these charges, that the German Democrats no longer acknowledge them as leaders or Representative of the Democratic party or its principles. The German Democratic Convention meets early in the day, and its action upon this question is awaited with great anxiety by the ring and German citizens generally.

THE LATE RAILROAD HORROR.

All the journals are discussing the Boston railroad accident, and are unanimous in the opinion that the case demands such an investigation as will result in fixing the responsibility of the catastrophe, and visiting the guilty with the severest penalties of the law.

The World says of the accident: "If this be not murder, murder most foul, most unnatural, most clamorous to God and man for justice, then it were as well to strike out at once from all legislation useless statutes, which pretend to hedge with pity and with power the lives of innocent men."

FRAUDS IN THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE.

The Tribune of this morning denounces the system of frauds in the sheriff's office, by which the deputies, assistants and other associated politicians made enormous sums out of persons arrested, charging them exorbitant fees for trifling services, levying blackmail on others, and extorting money in every possible manner. Instances are detailed where twenty-five dollars were demanded and received for the deputy to accompany a prisoner on his way to jail, forty dollars for executing a Judge's order to discharge, and a number of other similar cases are cited.

A COLORED JURY.

Michael Burns, of Flushing, L. I., was arraigned before Justice Hamilton on Saturday on a charge of assault and battery, and found guilty by the jury—exclusively of colored men—selected to try the case. The accused, however, protested so strongly against being tried by negroes wholly that the court took the responsibility of discharging the jury, and ordering a new panel.

THE GENEVA CONFERENCE.

A special from Washington says that our government has no information of the appointment of any Geneva arbitrators except Lord Chief Justice Cockburn. The conference must not assemble later than December 16th. It will most likely not meet much before that date. The preparation of the case for the United States was begun immediately upon the ratification of the treaty, and has proceeded uninterruptedly.

NEW YORK BONDS IN BERLIN.

The New York Staats Zeitung declares the cable dispatch published a few weeks ago about the exclusion of the bonds of this city from the Berlin exchange a falsehood. It says that neither the German nor English newspapers, comprising the Times, when that pretended that the measure would have taken place, which have arrived meanwhile from Europe, contain one word about it.

THAT BODY IN THE TRUNK.

The mystery enveloping the case of the victim of abortion whose remains were conveyed to the Hudson River Railroad Depot in a trunk on Saturday is clearing up. There is no reason to doubt but that the principal criminal is now in the hands of the police, and there is every probability that all concerned in the crime will before morning be under arrest.

It has transpired that two boilers on board the Union Ferry Company's boats have been in use eight years. Three have been in use nine years, one of them running eleven years. LOUISVILLE, August 28.—To-night a boy named Jimmy Eagan, aged about thirteen, was in the garden of Mrs. Smith, on Phion Hill, in the upper part of the city, stealing peaches, when some unknown person fired a load of buckshot at him, several entering the head, inflicting a wound from which the boy will probably die. FIRE.

The Monastery Mills, belonging to the Trappist monks at Gethsemane, Nelson county, were destroyed by fire on Saturday morning. Loss $14,000. The monastery building, one of the largest and finest in the country, near the mills, narrowly escaped burning. A large sum of money recently sent from France to this community was lost, and the monks are left without means to rebuild. The failure of the crops and this calamity leave the monks in a very needy condition, and they appeal to the public for contributions and their substance till the next year's harvest. Even the wool for the winter's clothing was destroyed.

A hundred or more negroes filled and stationed themselves around the jail last night. Early this morning one of them gave a false alarm that the Ku Klux were coming, and the negroes rushed en masse into the street and commenced firing. Two or three hundred shots were fired and several negroes wounded, but nobody was killed. The town is in a state of great excitement.

PHILADELPHIA, August 28.—The celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Philadelphia Rifle Club commenced to-day, with a parade of the organization, comprising 1,800 members. Delegates were present from New York, Jersey, Washington, Richmond, Baltimore, Delaware, New Haven and other localities. At noon a banquet was given in the spacious pavillion of the Schutzen Park, which was presided over by Richard Muckle, at which Mayor Fox, Gen. Meade, Gen. Patterson and other celebrities responded to toasts. The celebration will continue for four days.

A Fancy Drink.

The "cruiskeen lawn" and the "potheen" of the Irish bards must yield their place in song to a new tipple, whose virtues are even greater than those of peat-smoked whisky. Methylated ether does not have a poetic sound, but perhaps the Irish of it would fit better in verse. Such is the name of the new beverage, of which ten thousand gallons are drank in the counties of Londonderry, Antrim and Tyrone, each gallon warranted to "go as far" as three and a half gallons of whisky. There is little to be said in favor of the first impressions of this tipple, except its comparative cheapness; for it has the taste of wood spirit and naphtha even to nausea. But its intoxicating qualities are most elegant, inebriation hastening after the few swallows required to dispose of the requisite quantity, and as speedily passing away. The only possible objection is that the fumes of ether, when mingled with air form a highly explosive compound; but no instance of tipplers being blown up, except by their wives, has yet been known. Judging from its extensive use in Ireland, we may before long look for its introduction here, where American ingenuity would soon invent methylated cobblers and ether smashes, and perhaps establish a beverage welcome to the oath-bound throats of those who have signed the usual pledge against alcoholic liquors.

THIEVES ON THE WING.

A Pair of Robbers from Middlesex Arrested on the Cars—In the Lock-Up.

Last evening the following dispatch was received at the Mayor's office from Middlesex, Mercer county, Pa.

"Arrest two men on Pittsburgh and Erie train, holding Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago checks 5,094 and 5,884. Search their clothing and baggage carefully for two silver American watches. Nos. 85,245, Ellery movement, and 432,608, Waltham Watch Company; a $20 U. S. gold piece, a silver dollar with "W. W. W." engraved thereon; and about $350 in currency. Answer if found.

A. W. PARKER."

Officers Ruch and Strain, of the detective force, were entrusted with the case, and proceeding to the Allegheny depot, they awaited the arrival of the train upon which the thieves were supposed to be. The train arrived at five minutes before eleven o'clock, when the detectives boarded the rear cars and soon found their men. A search of their pockets developed the checks numbered as described in the telegraphic message, and upon the person of one of the men, who gave his name as W. H. McCalin, were found two pocket books, one containing $385, and the other $18.72. The other, who said his name was Thomas M. Clark, had in his possession a pocket book containing $11. The check called for two large trunks, apparently well filled with goods. These were stopped at the Union Depot, and the prisoners were confined in the Central Station House. Their baggage will be searched this morning, when no doubt all the property mentioned in the telegram will be turned up. The prisoners are both young men, not over twenty-five years of age.

COLLISION ON THE PAN HANDLE.

A Passenger Train and "Freight" Collide—Gross Carelessness.

Yesterday morning a collision occurred on the Pan Handle Railroad which if our information be correct was the result of gross and criminal carelessness. It seems a freight train switched off to a siding at Burgettstown, twenty-seven miles from the city, to await the passage of the Steubenville accomodation which left this city about eight o'clock yesterday morning. The train seems not to have been drawn far enough on the siding and when the "accommodation" came along there was a collision. The locomotive of the accomodation was pretty well battered up in front and thrown from the track, while two of the freight cars were demolished. The passengers in the Accommodation were treated to a shock, but otherwise escaped injury. The fireman perceiving the collision to be inevitable, attempted to save himself by jumping off, in which he succeeded, though at the expense of a badly sprained ankle; no other person was hurt. The trains on the road were delayed three hours by the accident.

It might be well for the company to investigate the matter, and see which of their employees is so assininely stupid—if not worse—that he is not able to tell when a train is run off the main track to a siding properly.

ADDITIONAL MARKETS.

Titusville Oil Market.

TITUSVILLE, August 28.—The Courier reports the petroleum market for to-day as follows: Sales on Upper Road 900 bbls A T Co spot $4.40; 1,000 do $4.40; 2,000 do five days' option $4.45; 1,000 do regular $4.45; 500 do T P Co, spot $4.50; 2,000 S. O. all the year, $4.40; 6,000 do $4.40. Pet. Centre: 300 bbls regardless $4.75; 2,000 gravity $4.80. Rouseville: 1,000 bbls 47 gravity $4.75; 335 do regardless $4.70. Lower Road: 3,000 47 gravity $4.80; 1,000 regular $4.85. Oil City: 4,000 47 gravity $4.85, 1,000 46 gravity, $5; 1,000 bbls do free on board at $5. We report to-day a buoyant and quite active market. For some reason that we will not undertake to explain, prices were considerably advanced, and the market closed firm without particular excitement at the highest figures of the day. Our list of sales reflects very fully the state of feeling now existing. The action of the pipe companies in refusing to receive in future any oil over 49 gravity on any terms, will be, we are confident, be universally commended and will be the means of considerably appreciating upper road values.

THE Fifth avenue market opening on Saturday was a grand success. The indications are that it will shortly repay itself. The city made a good and wise investment when it purchased that site.

GERMANY, the proudest nation in all Europe, has reached out her hand to Italy, and promises to prove her guard and shield in the future. Italy never can live and bloom and prosper unless some stronger nation stands at her back.

NOTHING succeeds like success. The city of Berlin, since it has been proved to be the capital of the most warlike and most victorious of modern European nations, has become very popular as a place of residence with all classes of people. Fifty thousand persons were added to the population of that city during the first six months of the present year, while during the whole year 1870, but 229 persons emigrated from the capital to America or Australia.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK in Pennsylvania is bright, rosy and brilliant for the Republican party. Everywhere, in all sections, in all counties, the party is as firm, strong and undivided as it was in days of yore. Here at home we have the greatest possible harmony prevailing in our ranks. We promise to do well and will do well in making our majority. If all the counties of the Commonwealth sustained their records as well as we of Allegheny will do, a glorious victory may be expected next autumn.

THIS seems to be the year most marked by dreadful calamities. Tales of suffering come to us from all quarters. The Cholera rules supreme in oriental countries and Famine plays the part of its companion. Volcanoes, earthquakes, pestilences and starvation appear to be following mankind at this date with more viciousness ever before known. Among the latest terror is that dispatched from Athens—the explosion of a powder mill by which over one hundred lives were lost. And then follows the explosion of the steamer Ocean Wave, by which nearly one hundred went down into an untimely grave.

ON Saturday next will be held the primary meetings for the selection of Republican nominees for the several city offices to be filled. We urge, in a most emphatic way, that all voters who have a right to participate in such election should turn out and discharge their duties. It is fair to presume that whosoever receives the nomination next Saturday will be elected to the position to which nominated, and hence the importance of putting in an appearance at the primary meetings. Very acceptable gentlemen are presented for the several nominations. Any one among those suggested for the several offices would well and faithfully discharge the duties assigned him, if elected. Having no prejudice or preference as to individuals in the canvass, we simply urge that all voters belonging to the Republican party should vote at the primary meeting, and give expression of their choice as to whom should fall the honor of nomination and subsequent election.

NOT VERY LONG AGO we recorded the fact of Dr. Doellinger's election to a prominent position in the University of Munich, in spite of his excommunication. It would really seem as if the scholars of Catholic Germany were determined to keep up their fight with the Jesuits, for, not satisfied with that one victory, they have just achieved another of the same nature. Professor Reissmann, a strenuous opponent of the new dogma, has been elected Rector of the University at Wuerzburg in spite of the bitter opposition of the Ultra-montane party. Nor is this opposition to the encroachments of that party confined to the universities; in fact it seems to be very wide-spread, especially in that part of the new Empire, which has been known as Catholic Germany, and it is constantly becoming more general. In Ratisbon, Max Hart, a priest and teacher, excommunicated by the Bishop, has taken his case into print and in a controversy, thus carried on, seems to have had the best of it and to have silenced his opponents. In Offenbach six families have seceded from the church, formally, because they cannot subscribe to the new dogma. Near Passau, a gentleman, the owner of large estates, was publicly denounced from the pulpits, because he was known to have received two copies of a newspaper opposed to ultra-montanism. The gentleman brought an action against the priest, who upon being condemned appealed to a higher court and boldly repeated the offence whilst awaiting its decision. The fight is a straggling one, all along the line, and very bitter, but as yet we have had only the skirmishes and a great, perhaps a decisive battle may be looked for.

PROFESSOR GOLDWIN SMITH, attained to a prominence, which his own actions never could have won for him, through the kind offices of Mr. Disraeli, who, in Lothair, held him up to the ridicule of the world. Now there are some men who would rather be ridiculous, almost infamous, than obscure; and we think that the conduct of this inter-national Professor, when transfixed by the trenchant pen of the English novelist, was such as to induce some people to place him in that category. However, whilst enjoying his own prominence, it seems he has been indulging in a quiet hatred against the means by which he attained it, a state of affairs not unprecedented in cases where persons of small calibre have been called upon to fill a large space. And now, all of a sudden, without warning, and, indeed, after the Professor's existence had ceased to interest the majority of people, he raises his voice, and in a lecture made recently at Toronto, he vents his accumulated spleen, not upon Mr. Disraeli, whom he fears, but on a lot of inoffensive novelists, as well as upon Mr. Charles Reade, who is by no means inoffensive, and who, if he should have a little time to waste upon the exotic Professor, is capable of flaying him with his pen and then sousing him into the bitter brine of his sarcasm. But here is a part of what Mr. Goldwin Smith said in his lecture:

"Novelists, however, often debase fiction by obtruding their personal vanities, favoritisms, fanaticisms and antipathies. I saw, the other day, a novel, the author of which brings himself in almost by name as a heroic character, with a description of his own personal appearance, residence, and habits, as fond fancy paints them to himself. There is a novelist who is a man of fashion, and who makes the age of the heroes in his successive novels advance with his own, so that at last we shall have irresistible fascination at seven score years and ten. But the commonest and the most mischievous way in which personality breaks out is pamphleteering under the guise of fiction. One novel is a pamphlet against lunatic asylums, another against model prisons, a third against the poor laws, a fourth against the Government offices, a fifth against trades' unions. In these pretended works of imagination facts are coined in support of a crotchet or an antipathy with all the license of fiction; calumny revels without restraint, and no cause is served but that of falsehood and injustice. A writer takes offense at the excessive popularity of athletic sports; instead of bringing out an accurate and conscientious treatise to advocate moderation, he lets fly a novel painting the typical boating man as the seducer of confiding women, the betrayer of his friend, and the murderer of his wife. Thus the voice of morality is confounded with that of tyrannical petulance and self-love."

COMMISSIONER HOWE SPEAKS OUT.

Dr. S. G. Howe, late Commissioner of the United States to San Domingo, has written a letter to the New York Tribune on the San Domingo question, in which he deprecates the manner in which that question is now so frequently spoken of. He reasserts, what he officially signed as Commissioner, that the inhabitants of the island are of a high type and unexpected degree of intelligence, used to the exercise of political powers and unanimously desirous of annexation. These facts, Dr. Howe says, were affirmed by the Commissioners and substantiated by a large intelligent and unbiased corps of scientific men and newspaper reporters, which he thinks ought to be sufficient to at least gain credence and a respectful reception for them. "I know," says the Dr. "that the investigation of the Island and of its people, was made honestly, earnestly and thoughtfully. The Commissioners were not blind, nor were they hood-winked by Baez. The canvass of the people was minute but extensive." Then, after enumerating a few of the facts discovered, he says:

"Surely it is worth some attention, even though it conflicted with opinions and dogmatic assertions based upon Congress Library lore, with the statements of political adventurers and exiles, whether Haytian or Dominican. But Santo Domingo was already, for the time, a dead cock in the political pit. The clamor of party drowned the voice of humanity, and the report was still-born. Our people had been made to take a snap judgment upon the question of annexation, in their utter ignorance of its important bearing upon the subject of West Indian and Brazilian slavery, and upon the spread of freedom on all sides. The time foretold by an illustrious Senator, in his prophetic voice about America, had indeed come. "When the name of our Republic should be exalted, until every neighbor, yielding to the inevitable attraction, should seek new life in becoming part of the great whole." The people of Santo Domingo believed the prophecy. They prayed "to become part of the great whole:" but our people were made to turn a deaf ear to the prayer."

Further along in Dr. Howe's letter the length of which necessitates our giving but these few extracts instead of the whole, he says:

"Any attempt to revive the question of annexation is scouted as a disturbance of the dominant party. On the other hand, no opportunity is lost of giving a kick at the corpse of Annexation, and of vilifying the Administration as the supposed parent of it. For instance, the maintenance of a naval force in the Dominican waters is bitterly denounced. Our ships must be employed somewhere. The President has stationed a few of them in Dominican waters, and has thereby kept the peace in the regions round about, and prevented insurrection within the island, and bloody invasion from without. It is unfair to impugn the motives of the Administration in this matter, and to assail the character of the President. The officials sent to the Island may have exceeded their authority; the naval officers may have bullied the Haytian government, when they should have persuaded it. They may have pointed empty guns, instead of arguments. The President may have been technically wrong (tried by the figments of international laws established in the interests of despotism), but he has been morally right. He has been the real Protector, not only of the Republic of San Domingo, but of all that is truly Republican in Hayti. Would to God, that our fleet in the Corean Sea, could have been reaping such peaceful laurels! * * * *

The matter is seldom alluded to except to assail some act of the Administration. Republicans will not touch it, lest it disturb party integrity, Democrats will not touch it lest they miss the expected opportunity of themselves annexing the island, and getting the credit for doing what the Republicans could not or dare not do. Meantime the people of Santo Domingo, who had come to look upon annexation as the salvation of their country—as a guaranty against the feuds of rival chiefs, and the invasion of the neighboring blacks; as an assurance of peace, of industry and prosperity — are bitterly disappointed. They have fed on the "hope deferred" which maketh the heart sick, and now despair. No man of feeling who knows this interesting people, can fail to be moved by a thought of their present condition and their probable fate. To me they seem, in some respects, as did the poor mountaineers of Crete a few years ago, and whom we might have saved, but for our worship of the Fetish of international law. I trust that Santo Domingo, so marvelous for its beauty and its fertility; so delicious in its climate and its fruits; so rich in its internal resources; so felicitous in its geographical position, may be kept from becoming the colony of any foreign government; and that its inhabitants may be saved from civil war and subjection by the Haytians until such time as the sober second thought of our people shall grant their prayer for the protection of our laws and of our institutions.

THE "POST" ON CITY HALL.

For years past I have been a "constant reader" of the Post, and have always found it to be a very readable, intelligent and consistent newspaper. When the Post opposes a public man or a public measure, it means just that and nothing could dissuade it from its course. For instance, it bitterly opposed the old park ring. Every morning or so we had two or three articles showing the venality and absurdity of such a combination as a park ring at all—which was right, as the then contemplated park might not have been in the proper location. The Post now likewise favorably encourages the new park ring by editorials and clippings almost every morning, showing the great necessity of a park for the "poor working man," &c., and no doubt does so for the reason that the new park may be placed in a more "suitable" location. You see, which, to my mind, speaks well for the "practical" judgment of the Post. Now, the same changes are being daily rung on City Hall, and it being too late to form a new ring on that "enterprise," the only remedy that I can see to effect a similar change of base, would be to say to remove the Hall in a northwesterly direction a block or so, or to the neighborhood of the new park, and it also might not be amiss to appoint a new commissioner or two. This, I think, could be done, but "you know how it is yourself."

CONSISTENCY.

THE Massachusetts State Board of Health have sent out a circular in which they call the attention of the health authorities of cities and towns to the fact that Asiatic cholera is now advancing westward from Eastern Europe, and say that while there need be no undue alarm, there is cause for increased vigilance on the part of all who are responsible for the condition of public health. The people are urged to look closely after their own premises, to give close attention to personal cleanliness, to be temperate both in eating and drinking, and to pursue their usual avocations without fear, that thus they may be prepared for Asiatic cholera if it comes, and in any case save many lives, which would otherwise be lost from kindred diseases which are always among us.

DOWN AMONG THE BREAKERS.

Letter from Cape May—The Ladies—The Styles—Daring Swimmer—A Great Fleet of Ships—Grand Sight—Pittsburghers and Alleghenians.

[Correspondence of Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CAPE MAY, N. J., August 26, 1871.

We do not know that we can write anything original in its character about this favorite sea-side resort, unless we speak of the graceful and majestic manner in which old Neptune rises from his sub-aqueous throne, and, dripping with brine, waves his golden trident in recognition of the honor rendered him by the numerous Nereids, Naiads, Tritons, and all others, male and female, that sport themselves in the foaming surf of the "polu ploisboio thalasses." (Apollo is the boy for the lasses.) For, although the "season" is near its close, hundreds daily pay obeisance to the fabled sovereign of old ocean, and perform their healthful and invigorating ablutions in its ever-boiling waters. If we wished to write anything original, we might open our scrap-book and reproduce the many stories which have frequently been published about "fops" and "dandies" becoming enamored of hotel cooks and waiting maids whilst under the masks of bathing costumes, or the infidelity and unbecoming conduct of wives during the absence of their husbands, most of which have about as much reality as the famous ocean god to whom we have referred above, and which can be traced only to the fertile imagination of the sensational Jenkinses who must "fill up" with something that will make their correspondence attractive and prevent their occupation from coming to naught. Having heard and read much about sea-side indiscretions, and even worse, we have kept a strict watch on the morals and manners of the visitors to this place, and have found less to blame than we have frequently seen in a private social gathering at home.

The truth is, the people who are here seem to be of the more staid and rational class, who have come down to the "surf" for pure recreation and the benefit of their health, and not to exhibit the foibles and practice the follies incident to our weak humanity. The toillettes of the ladies are neither elaborate nor offensive. Their dresses (of which there seem to be few changes, as we have seen the same dresses every day on the same mademoiselles ever since we came here) are not by any means extravagant. The only really attractive dress that we have seen was made of gros grain silk, with a sweeping train. It was so beautiful and becoming that a gentleman said, when he saw it, that he would buy a silk dress for his wife when he returned to Philadelphia. But when one, who claims to be an adept, and has had some experience in matters of this kind, gave him the cost in plain figures he expressed a fear that at present he could not lie over long enough in the city of brotherly love to make the purchase.

On Thursday morning about six o'clock the visitors at the Cape had an opportunity of witnessing a most magnificent scene. From Henlopen Light House to the head of Cape Island the whole offing was one line of vessels. We counted no less than one hundred and twenty at one time, in the haze of the morning. The number we are informed even exceeded that. Sometimes there were not two of them abreast. The scene gave some idea of the amount of business transacted by those who go down into the sea in ships. It is so long since we read Homer's catalogue of the ships we will not attempt to present anything original by way of description of the scene. Suffice it to say that it was one of the grandest, if not the grandest of the kind we have ever witnessed.

Allegheny and Pittsburgh are well represented here. The ladies of these cities are universally acknowledged to be among the most beautiful of all the beautiful ladies that frequent the sea side, or any where else. Graceful and symmetrical in form, dignified in movement and deportment, and always richly but chastely attired, they are universally admired. Those who are here at present are no exception to this rule. The gentlemen of the aforementioned cities are celebrated for their gallantry, just appreciation of feminine beauty, and daring aquatic feats. It was only yesterday that an Allegheny city father, who takes the water like a duck himself, stood almost petrified with fear as he saw one of the knights of the quill of Pittsburgh, plunge somersault style into the outer surf, and dash, recklessly as we would say, into the track of vessels of large draft, as if he were bound for the British Provinces to weep over the lifeless remains of a brother craftsman (the champion sculler of England) or like Darby Doyle for Corsica, "the land of Bony." He was suddenly relieved of his fears and dread apprehensions, however when he saw his friend, who swims like a whale and sports like a porpoise, was only playing with old ocean, and did not contemplate at present taking a journey longer than a few strokes beyond the outer breakers, for with another bound and plunge he returned to a fordable depth. The matter was kept a profound secret here, and did not find its way this morning into any of the local papers, although the daring feat was witnessed by a goodly number of the biped aquatics who daily luxuriate in the "splendid" and exciting surf. We hope it will not find its way into the New York Herald. The Jenkinses have left for the season, and we would not attempt to get up a sensation were it not that the daring feat is worthy of a permanent record.

Among the Pittsburghers and Alleghenians who have been here during the week we notice our life-long and sincere friend, Hugh McNeil, Esq., one of the oldest members of Allegheny Councils, and deservedly one of the most popular and influential citizens in that sister city. He is a staunch Republican, a devoted patriot and an incorruptible gentleman. He never resorts to trickery, and fearlessly asserts and maintains whatever he believes to be just and right. Also, Rev. S. F. Scovel, D. D., the talented pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh. Senator George H. Anderson, wife and family. The Senator, like some of the distinguished English statesmen of whom we have read, does not think it beneath him to sport with his children in the halls of fashionable hotels or plunge them with his own hands beneath the surf. D. M. Smith, Esq., of the firm of Park, Brother & Co., is here, and is accompanied by his two amiable and accomplished sisters. We notice also William Morrison, Esq., and family, who have been here for some ten weeks; Henry Irwin and family; D. W. C. Carroll, wife and daughter; Hull Inspector Snowden and wife; Mrs. C. Yeager, wife of our esteemed and public spirited Market street merchant, Mr. Chris Yeager. Mrs. Yeager is accompanied by her son William, and her daughter, Rev. Mrs. Goettman. We had the pleasure of meeting J. C. Lewis and David B. Oliver, of the firm of Lewis, Oliver & Phillips; also, J. S. Liggett and family, Henderson E. Davis, David McCormick and Geo. Reichard. W. B. Scaife and family left the Island a few days ago, also, our good friend and whilom reformer, John A. Carothers.

The ladies have been tripping past us for the last thirty minutes in their bathing costumes, and as we wish to enjoy the bath in fashionable hours, we must close for the present. NEP.

POLITICAL.

THE remarkable address of the Boston Young Democracy contains this: "We must have it understood—briefly, broadly, and comprehensively—that we are for the National Constitution, as it is; that we regard it as our first, last, and only guide, and from its parchment folds we would not erase a single letter or a single line." And this: "For the destruction of human slavery and the elevation of the negro to citizenship in the land where he was born, and on the soil that he has tilled, every true Democrat will thank God."

THAT Thomas Ewing, Jr., is not one of the Brooklyn Eagle's favorites may be inferred from its remarks that the Democratic party has had quite too much of him, and that a man who can be a candidate for District Attorney of Washington, Senator from Kansas, and Governor of Ohio, all in less than two years, and then denounce carpet-bagging in able and eloquent terms, is a person of too brilliant consistency to be trusted with office. The Eagle says more and harder things of him, but perhaps this will satisfy Ewing.

PAYMASTER SMITH, United States Navy, lectured in Vallejo, Cal., on the cruise of the Kearsarge. He said that three different times during the fight with the Alabama, Semmes lowered his flag in token of surrender, and then took advantage of the cessation of firing on the part of the Kearsarge to pour in a fresh broadside; that after the third display of treachery, and not till then, Capt. Winslow ordered his men not to cease their fire until they saw some convincing evidence of the enemy's surrender. He also said that after the Alabama had gone down, and the sea was covered with living bodies, struggling for life, several of the Confederate officers, who had surrendered, themselves on board the Kearsarge, requested leave to assist in saving their men. The permission was granted, but when once in their boats, they rowed as fast as possible to the English yacht Deerhound, leaving their drowning comrades to their fate.

DR. STROUSBERG.

The name of this remarkable man has recently been mentioned so often in connection with the so-called Roumanian railroad frauds, which may lead to a serious misunderstanding between the German Empire and Russia, and his life has been one of so many strange vicissitudes, that a biographical sketch of him may not be found uninteresting.

Twelve months ago Dr. Strousberg was generally believed to be a man of immense wealth, and no one hesitated to entrust him with even the largest sums of money. To gain access to his palatial residence on Wilhelm street, in Berlin, was considered a favor which even members of the highest aristocracy did not disdain to solicit, and the royal court showered honors upon the reputed great millionaire, whose wealth was believed to be surpassed by no private citizen in Prussia, except Baron Carl von Rothschild. To-day Dr. Strousberg is unable to meet his liabilities, and the Berlin Courts have ascertained the astounding fact that he has absolutely no property in his own name upon which the officers of the law can levy.

Dr. Strousberg, or, as his real name is, Baruch Hirsch Strausberg, was born in East Prussia on the 21st of November, 1823. His parents were poor Israelites, who could do very little for his education, and who left him an orphan in his twelfth year. The boy, who did not find anybody willing to take care of him, took service at Pillau on board of a vessel bound for England, as a cabin boy, in order to get to London, where an uncle of his was a coal-dealer in not very prosperous circumstances. He became an apprentice in his uncle's store, and showed at that early age so much business capacity that he was sent repeatedly to the coal districts to make purchases.

As young Strousberg was growing up he became convinced that if he wished to rise in life he must strive to make up for the neglect of his early education in consequence of the poverty of his parents. So he devoted every spare hour to the acquirement of knowledge, and for years he never slept more than four or five hours a day. Finally, believing that he would never be able to accomplish much if he remained in the employment of his uncle, he resolved to enter another career, and to become a journalist. He managed to become acquainted with a number of London reporters, made himself familiar with short hand writing, and finally became a parliamentary reporter for the London Times. By-and-by he rose in his new profession. He wrote editorial articles for a number of periodicals, and finally became editor-in-chief of the Merchants' Magazine, in which position he made the acquaintance of many wealthy business men and formed influential connections, which enabled him to engage successfully in some speculations by which he amassed a small capital.

Some time afterward he succeeded in obtaining the Presidency of the London Building Society, which yielded him a handsome income. About that time he renounced the faith of his fathers, to the great mortification of the Israelites in London, became a Christian, changed his name to Bethel Henry Strousberg, and married a highly accomplished but very poor young lady of good family. In the course of a few years he became the father of several children, and this was a new incentive for the energy, perseverance and sagacity of the man who from his childhood had been pursuing but one great object—the acquirement of riches. Seeing that it would be impossible for him to become in England a millionaire in a brief space of time, he came to the United States to try his luck here. However, whimsical Dame Fortune did not smile on him in the new world, and after many disappointments he returned at last to London, where his first venture was the attempt to establish a cheap illustrated newspaper. This undertaking was a total failure, and the losses he sustained in consequence left him almost penniless, so that he was only too glad to obtain the position of general agent of the Waterloo Insurance Company.

In Prussia he found an entirely new field for his interprising spirit. A number of British capitalists caused him to obtain for them the contract for constructing the Tilsit and Insterburg Railroad, and finding that he managed their business in a very satisfactory manner, they placed him at the head of the whole enterprise. In this position he became intimately familiar with railroad affairs, and was not long in preceiving that he might amass wealth by receiving contracts for the construction of new railroad lines. This now became his exclusive business. He built a number of important railroads in Prussia, Hanover and Hungary, and his name was soon famous among railroad men. The rapidity and tact with which he managed to obtain sufficient means to carry his contracts promptly into execution were truely surprising, and filled the business world of Prussia, which had never been noted for much enterprise and spirit, with amazement and admiration. The extraordinary success with which his operations met gained him the confidence of the wealthiest Berlin and Frankfort banking firms, to such an extent that they willingly advanced him millions of dollars whenever he called for them.

Knowing the influence of the press and the benefit he might derive from owning a journal of his own, he founded the Berlin Post, and with great adroitness managed to keep his name constantly before the people in a manner eclipsing even the efforts of Hoff, the malt extract man, and other great European advertisers. He spent very large sums of money for benevolent purposes, purchased a number of valuable estates, became the owner of Egestorff's extensive machine shops at Hanover, and erected on Wilhelm street, in Berlin, a residence of palatial dimensions and fitted up in a manner unparalled in the Prussian capital. In the course of a few years he was believed to have amassed a fortune of twenty millions of dollars, and no one suspected that he would ever be unable to meet his liabilities.

Great, therefore, was the amazement of the Prussian people when it was announced one day that Dr. Bethel Henry Strousberg was insolvent, and that those who had entrusted him with their means would probably find their investment a total loss. As a matter of course, the fallen nabob became rapidly unpopular. The newspapers began to denounce him bitterly—charges of a serious character were made against him, and finally he was arrested by order of the public prosecutor on a charge of having defrauded the stockholders of the Roumanian Railroad Company.

It has not yet been definitely ascertained what led to the sudden failure of this remarkable man, and whether he ever was really as wealthy as he was generally believed to be.

A National System for Time on Railroads.

The confusion experienced by the travelling public in respect to time is so great that anything like a practical system in this direction must be received with favor. Mr. C. F. Dowd, of Saratoga, New York, has devised such a system, which he calls "A National System of Time for Railroads." It is based upon national longitude. It adopts Washington time for the eastern portion of the country as standard time; one hour slower than Washington time for the Mississippi Valley; two hours slower for the Rocky Mountain Section, and three hours slower for the Pacific States. These standards are designated by the small figures, 0, 1, 2, 3, respectively placed in a little elevated position before the names of the stations. Then, to designate the minute difference between the local time of any station and railroad time or standard time, small figures are placed in a little elevated position after the names of the stations. These figures, when they indicate that railroad time is too fast, have a sign, †, before them, and the sign, —, when they indicate railroad time too slow. The whole system is very simple, and if adopted would very soon be understood by the traveling public. If adopted, the traveler could keep his own time wherever he might go, and take the cars by his own watch as well in one part of the country as in another.

The work was an immense labor, involving about 8,000 computations for longitude. The scientific part receives the endorsement of Professors Loomis and Newton, of Yale College, Prof. Hough, of the Albany Observitory, and the Professor of Astronomy at the Military Academy at West Point. The practicability and feasibility of it is already endorsed by the superintendents of many of our most important roads such as the Boston and Albany, Connecticut River, Hartford and New Haven, Hartford, Providence and Fishkill, New York Central, Erie, Harlem, Lake Shore and Chicago, and others.—Railroad Journal.

A BOY sixteen years old, named King, became weary on the second night of his confinement in the lock-up in Lewiston, Me., and with a nail made a saw of a case-knife, with which he cut off the bars of his cell. He had nearly escaped when the Police discovered what he was doing, and put him in another cell. In a short time he had nearly worked out of this cell, badly smashing the walls as well as cutting bars. They then put him in a third cell, with bracelets on his wrists, and went on their rounds. In forty minutes King had cut off two bars, and made his escape.

Butterfly, Butterfly, Where Are You Going?

Hartford, Conn., has been favored with a flight of the most beautiful butterflies passing overhead in a southwesterly direction for the better part of three days. Beginning on Saturday, the 16th inst., the novel migration continued throughout Sunday, and only came to an end on the afternoon of Monday, the 21st, at which time the insect flight assumed portentous proportions, as if a heavy rear-guard were bringing up the column. The insects are described as flying at all heights, from three feet to five hundred feet in the air (at which height we must be pardoned some scepticism), and are represented as about fonr inches across the wings, from tip to tip, and of "a rich cinnamon color, deeply veined with black bars and lines in various patterns, and a broad dark border, prettily marked by a triple row of white spots, as finely and evenly placed as the most fastidious critic could wish." If the wonderful story be true, (though the seeing a four-inch butterfly five hundred feet up in the air is pretty tough), the sight of so many pretty flutterers must have been charming indeed.

ATTEND TO YOUR FEET....

CORNS.

One of the most wonderful preparations which has come into use recently is ROBINSON'S CORN PENCIL, which removes from the feet these troublesome excrescences, and that, too, without any pain. Robinson's Corn Solvent dissolves and disintegrates the corn entirely, leaving the feet as smooth and healthy as if the corn had never been there.

It not only removes corns, but warts and bunions, and indurations of any kind are freely removed. Let any one whose feet are troubled with these pests try it at once, and every particle of indurated matter can bo removed from the feet.

They are sold at 50 cents each, or by the dozen, at KEYSER'S, 167 Liberty street. Sent by mail for 60 cents.

MEDICINAL WATERS.

JAMES E. BURNS & CO. have, in addition to all the nicely flavored syrups to furnish their magnificent marble palace fountain, just received invoices of 100 packages of medicinal waters, including the Hathorn and Congress Waters of Saratoga, the Magnetic Waters of St. Louis, Michigan, and the Blue Lick Waters of Kentucky, all fresh from native fountains, and for sale in all quantities at their store, corner of PENN AND SIXTH STREETS. The waters here specified are unsurpassed by any in the world for the cure of the diseases to which they are specially adapted, such as intestinal derangements, chronic rheumatism and neuralgia, and affections of the kidney and bladder. Many expensive journeys may be saved by resorting to Burns' for these health giving waters.

WILTED DOWN.

Ask the man who complains of "wilting down" in torrid weather what he has done to sustain his system under the extra strain imposed on his vitality. He may tell you that he has tried a variety of cathartics to purify his blood and brighten his spirits. Under such treatment, of course, his strength has given way, and his energies have become exhausted. What he requires is a restorative, not a depletant. His blood is thin; his nerves have lost their natural tension, and nature demands to be renovated and reinforced. The means is within the reach of all. For nearly a score of years, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been building up broken constitutions, bracing and strengthening attenuated frames, and affording comfort, ease, and hope to thousands. As a preventive of the epidemics which make such havoc with the health of the inhabitants of new settlements this famous tonic is certainly without a rival. Perhaps the principle portion of its world wide fame is attributable to its astonishing cures of dyspepsia, and all forms of indigestion. But these are not a moiety of its triumphs. All the types of biliousness yield to its persistent use. It is a regulating medicine of the highest order; and its effect upon the secretions, when irregular, is most salutary.

Imposition of the grossest character is sought to be practiced upon the community by vendors, who recommend under the name of "bitters," fiery compounds of a dangerous character, which they attempt to substitute for the great national tonic. Shun all such nostrums, and see that you have the genuine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, properly authenticated by label, name and stamp, and sold in bottles only.

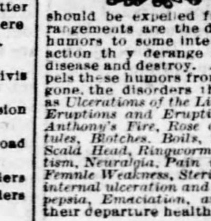
Ayer's Sarsaparilla
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.



A medicine that cures is a real public blessing. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA makes positive cure of a series of complaints, which are always afflicting and too often fatal. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, which undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

Money still remains very abundant at 2@2½ per cent.

Gold has been dull, being sustained at 12⅝ by the clique, but it is thought that they will have a difficult time to hold it up after a few days.

The stock market continues very strong and active. Reading, Wabash, Rock Island and St. Paul were strong at an advance, and from first class men purchasing, it is believed they will sell much higher. The tendency of the whole market is upwards, and advances are looked for in September.

—The Chicago Tribune in referring to the "corner" in wheat and its effect on the flour trade says: The excitement in wheat is telling with fearful force upon our millers. The Eastern flour markets have failed to respond to the advance in wheat; hence our millers are unable to put up prices, while they are unable to put up prices, while they are unable to make flour at present quotations. The prices of cash spring wheat were probably never more unfavorable for local millers than now, and there is so little winter wheat offering that they cannot get enough of that to keep running. No class of men are so united in cursing the speculative mania that breaks out in wheat now and then, because none suffer from it so much as they do. Those excitements are often of some temporary benefit to country holders, but a uniform loss to the millers; and the farmers probably lose more than they make by it in the long run.

We also clip the following from the same paper in regard to wheat: It is the recent light receipts that has put up our market, operators counting on receiving more, as the harvest was reported to be much earlier than usual. But the fact is that Chicago seldom receives much new wheat till the close of August, and the indications now are that country holders are preparing to send it on as fast as the cars can be found to carry it here. The fear of this has made buyers hold back, as they do not believe in the market being cornered for next month except naturally.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
MONDAY, August 28, 1871. }

ASHES—Common Soda ash, 4@4¼; refined 4¼@4½; Pearls, 9; Pots, 7½; Nitrate Soda, 4½.

BUTTER—There is a steady demand for the better grades, and we can report sales of prime to choice at 18@20. For the common and medium grades there is no improvement in the demand, and prices are weak and unchanged.

BROOM CORN—The inquiry is light and the market is dull, though prices are without quotable change, 5@7 cts.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 33@35c.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2,50@3,00 per bbl. Rosendale, $4,00@4,50; Calcined Plaster, $4,25 @4,50.

CORN MEAL—The demand continues light and almost wholly of a retail character, and we continue to quote at 80@85 per bushel.

CARBON OIL—There is a fair jobbing trade at 22½@23 cts for standard brands—usual advance in small lots.

CHEESE—Is steady with a fair business, but unchanged; prime Ohio Goshen, 10@10½; Factory, 9@9½; Dairy, 8@8½.

COUNTRY BACON—Continues very dull. Country Lard is still quoted at 8@8½.

EGGS—The supply of strictly fresh is very much reduced, and, with considerable inquiry, the market is stronger and prices tending upward. Quotations may be fairly given at 12@13.

FRUITS—The supply of Apples is very much reduced, and, with considerable inquiry, the market is firm and prices tending upward; we now quote at $2,50@3,00 per bbl, for good to prime. Peaches, in steady demand and we can report regular sales at $1,50@2.25 per box. Plums, $3,50@4.00 per bushel. Grapes, dull, 5 @7 cts.

FLOUR—Is quiet, but steady with a fair local trade; prices firm but unchanged. Good spring extras, $6.50@6.75; choice baker's flour, $6,90@7,00; good to choice red winter wheat, $6,50@6.75. Minnesota flours are tending upward, in consequence, partially, of a recent advance in freights.

GRAIN—There was a good attendance at the grain exchange to-day, and those who originated the enterprise are determined to make it a success; it should have been established here long ago, and there is no reason why it should not now succeed. Besides being convenient for buying and selling it is very useful in many other ways; it affords an opportunity for exchange of views in regard to the present and prospective condition of the market and is calculated to make operators better acquainted with each other, which is very important. Following sales were reported:

5 cars oats on private terms.
2 cars Amber Wheat, at $1.28.
2 cars shelled corn on private terms.

There is a steady demand for wheat and all that offers is taken at full prices. Oat market continues unsatisfactory, and prices are irregular; prime white are held, generally at 44 and 45. Corn is quiet and unchanged. There is some inquiry for Rye, and but little offering; would sell readily at 75. Barley in the absence of sales may quoted at 80@85.

GROCERIES—Coffee—There seems to be no difference of opinion between sellers and buyers as to the extreme prices at which the bean is now being operated, and all agree that, with the deficiency in the current crop of Brazil and the heavy decrease of stock in the United States, the high rates asked will, in all probability, be enhanced as the fall season progresses. On last Friday an advance of ⅛c per lb on low grades was fully established with large sales. Java and some other descriptions of mild coffees, have not maintained the position occupied two weeks ago, and may be quoted ¼ and ⅛c under. We advance our quotations fully ⅛c per lb on Rio, and, from all that we can learn, country merchants would do well to lay in their fall stocks at an early day, as it is confidently expected that a brisk business, now anticipated in September, will throw the article higher than it has been since 1868.

Stock of Rio, in first hands, in the United States, this date:

1871	105,000 bags.
1870	11,000 "
1869	147,000 "
1868	200,000 "

Sugar—The demand for sugar is only fair but owners are unwilling to make concessions, although a doubtful tone exists, and feel that they have stocks, well under control. Buyers are not anxious operators; and unless a demand from the interior comes soon the importing interest on the sea board will have to let go to save themselves from loss on the approach of the new crop. Refined sugars are relatively lower than raws. Syrups—the finer grades of syrups are 3 to 5 cts higher—low grades easily bought at our quotations. This article of merchandise is considered to be very cheap—the ruling prices of last year, at this season, being 10 cts per gallon higher than the figures of to-day. It is thought higher rates will obtain.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 23; Prime, 19; Good, 18; Fair, 17; Roasting, 16@16½.

SYRUPS AND DRIPS—White Honey, 70; Havemyer & Elders, 70; Silver Drips, 60; other grades, 45@55.

REFINED SUGARS—Hard Sugars, 14; A Coffee, 13; "B," 12¾; Extra C, 12¼; C. yellow, 12⅛.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, choice, 70; prime, 68; good, 65.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 10; prime, 9⅝ cts good, 9c.

SPICES—Grain Pepper, 22c. Pimento, 17c. Cloves, 20c. Cassia, 55c.

HAY—Sales on 'change of two cars of good tight pressed timothy, at $24.50.

MILL FEED—Is steady with a fair jobbing trade at $21@22 for Bran; $23@25 for Seconds; $30@35 for Middlings, and $43@45 for Oil Meal.

ONIONS—The receipts are again increasing but, with a steady demand, prices are still maintained, $3,50@4.00 per bbl.

OIL—No. 1 Lard Oil, (Pittsburgh make) 70@72 to the trade, and 75 in a small way. No. 2 quoted at 58@60.

PEA NUTS—Quoted at 11 cts.

POULTRY—Young Chickens quoted at 50@60 cts per pair and old ones at 70@75.

POTATOES—Sales of Maryland Sweets reported at $4.50@5 per bbl, and Jerseys at $5.50@6.00.

RAGS—Sales, 4@4½ cts per lb.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed is rather firmer under the influence of recent advices from Chicago, and we now quote at $3,25@3,75. Clover Seed is quiet and weaker; $6,75@7. Flaxseed is unchanged at $1,80.

SUMAC—Sales Tennessee Sumac at 4½ cts.

WILLOWS—Quoted firm at 10 cts.

The oil market continues very quiet and presents nothing that is new or important—nothing at least deserving of special notice. As noted in our last report, our refiners generally are busily engaged in receiving crude and shipping refined, nearly all of which was bought and sold some time ago, but there is little or no new business, and in consequence, there have been but few sales for several weeks past.

CATTLE.

As will be seen there were 17 cars of cattle from the west, and add to these 8 cars driven over from the Central Yards (East Liberty,) and we have 25 cars or about 450 head; then again, there were, as near as we could learn, about 320 head driven from adjoining counties, which added to 450 would make in all 770 head, the largest number on sale at these yards for several months. The average quality of the offerings was hardly up to the usual standard, the bulk of the supply consisting of the common and medium grades, and, in consequence the number of strictly No. 1 butchers cattle was comparatively small and scarcely equal to the demand; on the other hand, there was an over supply of the lower grades, and the market for this particular class of stock was generally reported hard, and it is evident from the fact that there were quite a number of this kind left over unsold. There was a very full attendance of butchers, nearly all who have been hanging on to the East Liberty Yards, having come back to Allegheny again, and, consequently, a larger number of cattle is now required, but the supply to-day, particularly of the grades we have referred to, was in excess of the demand; all the best were picked up early in the day, and that, too, at full prices, but the slippery stock was very sluggish, and in many instances had to be sold below last weeks figures.

Prime to extra butchers stock may be quoted at 5½ to 6 cts—there was one car load of fancy two year old steers, averaging about 1,500, owned by Marks Bro., the best bunch of cattle in market, that would average something, we don't know how much, above 6 cts, all around.

Rothchilds & Zeigler report 27 from Washington Co., and one car from Central Yards, at 4.60@5 cts.

Thos. Bingham of Mercer Co. sold 5 head, at 4@5¼.

Greenwald & Kahn had 19 from Beaver Co. and 20 from Ohio, at 4@5½.

S. Kraus reports 17 head good to prime Ohio steers, at 5@6½.

Sheitemantle & Flinner report 17 head of Butler Co. steers and heifers, at 4@ ¾.

James Hanlin had 25 head of Washington Co. steers and heifers, at 4½@5½.

Kraus & Keefer sold 35 head of Ohio steers, at 4½@5½.

M. Varner 20 head of Washington Co. steers, at 4@5½; sold 36 head from Green Co. for Flannigan, at 4½@5¼; 26 from Green Co. for Rinenart, at 4@5½.

Eli Katz sold 28 head of mixed Ohio stock, at 4½@6 cts.

J. & S. Needy report 4 loads of fair to extra Ohio stock, at 4½@6 cts.

Neely & McMillan 7 head of Beaver Co. steers, at 4@5½.

Jacob Shamberg 26 head of Washington Co., at 4.60@6 cts.

Hazlewood & Blackstock 19 head of Penna. cattle, at 4½@5½—sent 16 heavy cattle over to Central Yards.

Peter Hartman reports 61 head of steers, from Green and Washington Co., on commission, at 4@5½.

Keefer & Beyer report 35 head of good to prime butchers cattle from Ohio, at 5@6 cts.

Louis Shamberg reports having sold 1 car on commission for Warner, at 5@5½.

S. Lowensteine reports 22 head small Ohio steers averaging 882 lbs, at 3,80@4,87.

Sadler, Haven & Co. two loads of Indiana steers, at 3¾@5 cts; two loads fairish Indiana stock, at 4½@5½.

S. Marks Bro. sold 21 on commission for D. Brown of Ohio, at 4@5½; two loads prime to extra Ohio steers, at 5½@6½ cts; 18 head of common Butler Co. stock, at 3½@4½.

Sol. Trautman reports 13 from Allegheny Co. and 30 from Ohio, all kinds, at 3½@6 cts.

Carr & McCallister sold 1 car of common to good Ohi stock for McDonough, at 4@5 cts.

Holmes, L & Co. report about 75 head of mixed western stock, at 4½@5½.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

The supply, although not up to that of last week, was nevertheless a fair one, footing up about 1,700; with a good demand, however, the market was quite active, which is evident from the fact that the pens were pretty well cleared by 10 o'clock, and, as compared with last week, prices, especially for the better grades, ruled higher. Sheep, as will be seen, sold at from $2 to $5 per head, and lambs at $1@4.

It is worthy of notice that, notwithstanding prices have been well sustained all season, sheep drovers are nearly all complaining bitterly about business being hard, and they have reason therefor. We are assured by many of the drovers that good mutton sheep are held at 5 cts in the country, which is about all that can be obtained for that kind here.

James Shaw, of Lawrence Co, reports 63 sheep and lambs—sold former at $2¾@4, and latter at $1.50@3.

John Drum, 100 head of good to extra lambs, supposed to average about $3.62 per head.

Robt McCaslin, of Lawrence Co. 200; sold sheep at 3¾@4½; lambs at $2¾@3½.

Andy Stakely wholesaled 55 head of good Mercer Co. sheep, averaging about 90 lbs, to Keefer & Kraus, at 4 cts per lb; retailed 23 tail ends at an average of $3.

S A Vandever, of Butler Co, reports 50 sheep at $2.50 per head to 4½ cts per lb; 90 lambs at $2@3.

Flinner & Sheitemantle, of Butler Co. report 90 sheep, averaging close to 100 lbs, at $3,00@4,50 per head; 120 lambs at $1,50@3,0.

I C McNeese, of Butler Co. reports 140 lambs at $2 00@3.50; 20 sheep at $2,50@5.00.

Adam Eckert reports 130 lambs at $2@4 per head.

M Humes, of Beaver Co. reports 95 head of sheep and lambs at $2.50@4.00.

Shonce & Stouffer, of Butler Co. 50 sheep at 5 cts per lb; 110 lambs at an average of $2,25.

John Beeler, of Butler Co, 100 sheep and lambs—4½ cts per lb for former, and latter at $1@3½.

Keefer & Kraus report 108 sheep, which were sent over to East Liberty; sold 65 lambs at $1.50@3.00.

Neeley & Fairley sold 24 sheep at $2,00@4,50 per head; 109 lambs at $2,0 @3,50.

RIVER NEWS.

The river is again receding at this point with 3 feet 6 inches in the channel last evening. Monongahela falling at Brownville; Allegheny rising above, with 14 inches reported at Oil City. Weather unsettled and showery.

The hull for Com. Kountz's mammoth sternwheeler was successfully launched yesterday.

The towboats Storm and Webster departed for Rochester, and the D. T. Lane arrived.

Late river telegrams will be found on our first page.

Prospects for a coal boat rise, not very flattering.

—The St. Louis Democrat says: Val. Entriken, one of the Fontenelle's clerks, has arrived from that steamer, and the following were at the boat when he left: Captain Conley, Clerk John Brook, mate, watchman, and eight men. The snag struck her on the starboard side, at the breast hooks, so destructively that she soon sank in fifteen feet of water on one side, on the other side her chock is clear of the water. The boat, no doubt, will prove a total loss, together with 3,500 sacks of grain. A lot of 300 sacks were re-shipped on the May Lowrie for this city. The point where the boat sank is nine miles above St. Joseph and three above Belmont. No bell-boat can reach her, and probably the work of wrecking her without one will soon be commenced. The snag that struck entered the hull and broke off. The cargo is insured. The Fontenelle is insured in Pittsburgh offices for $18,000. Captain John Shaw, her owner, left last night for the scene of the disaster.

—A Memphis special to the Cincinnati Commercial says: The City of Chester came near sinking several coal-boats among the fleet above the city yesterday by running too close as she went up the river. Forty men were kept busy to-day to prevent several that sprang leaks from going down. An advance in the price of coal would result from a loss of coal-flats at this time, and boats should be cautious about shaving them too close. The river is falling steadily. The Arkansas is down to 30 inches.

—The Memphis Avalanche of Thursday says: The Phil Allen has the honor of bringing the first bale of the new cotton to market. The bale was a rather shabby looking affair. Its sackers would have lost nothing by putting it in better shape, and covering it with respectable bagging, instead of shabby, worn-out grain sacks. It only lacked a few hours of being, as it was in appearance and quality, "number two."

—Alate New Orleans paper says: Scarcity of labor on the levee was never so great as it is at present, and the boats arriving with such large cargoes of Western produce, have been greatly delayed, in consequence of it, in being discharged, as several of them had to lay over from Friday until Saturday evening.

—Captain Ben. M. Merrielies and A. F. Powers, both of the Memphis Packet Line of steamers, have purchased a quarter interest in the Louisville, which boat, on the opening of the canal, will take her place in the Cincinnati and New Orleans trade, with Captain Merrielies in command.

—The Colossal, while recently engaged in transporting railroad iron up White river for the Cairo and Fulton railroad, knocked a hole in her hull when below Batesville. A bulkhead was built around the hole and the boat proceeded on her journey.

—Orders were received at Cincinnati from Pittsburgh Saturday night, ordering the Bengal Tiger and Niagara to start for Pittsburgh forthwith.

—The Northwestern Union Packet Company, of St. Louis, are trying to sell six steamboat boilers, thrown out of their service recently.

—Henry Robinson, of the Wade Hampton, drowned off that steamer at New Orleans on Tuesday afternoon.

—The Veteran was aground awhile at Craig's Bar, on Friday night.

—The repairs to the Robert E Lee will cost about $30,000.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—"Sam" was repeated last evening to a good house, and was rendered in a manner that gave the greatest satisfaction to the audience. The piece will be again presented this evening.

FIFTH AVENUE OPERA HOUSE.—A crowded house witnessed the repetition of "Across the Continent" last evening, and judging from the manner in which the piece is received, it seems likely to draw well throughout the engagement.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Tony Pastor, with his famous New York company, open tomorrow evening.

Bishop Bowman Institute.

This Collegiate School for Young Ladies, situate at No. 62 Grant street, commences its next session on Monday, the 11th proximo, and may safely be relied upon to continue as heretofore the excellent work for which the Rev. Rector, his accomplished lady and their assistants have found themselves peculiarly qualified by several years of unvaried success. The Bowman Institute is less pretentious, perhaps, than some others, but pursuing its quiet, orderly and prosperous career, has earned the confidence of its numerous patrons, and well deserves the high reputation and the flattering auspices with which it resumes its educational work on the second Monday of September.

Revenue Decision.

A cigar maker recently asked of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue the following question: "In making my monthly returns as a cigar manufacturer, am I compelled to show my actual invoices of purchases of leaf tobacco at the request of the Assistant Assessor?" The Commissioner replied as follows: "In answer to your query I have to say, that while you may not be compelled to show to the Assistant Assessor your actual invoices of purchases of leaf tobacco, you are required to enter in your manufacturer's book accurate accounts of the quantity of leaf tobacco purchased from time to time, either with or without invoices of the same, and this book must at all times be open to the inspection of your Assistant Assessor."

Lamp Explosion.

A lamp explosion occurred Sunday evening at the residence of Mrs. Duffy, No. 40 Martin street, Allegheny, adjoining the Hope Engine House, which came near being attended with disastrous results. Mrs. Duffy was in the act of lighting the lamp, when the explosion occurred, producing a report like that of a pistol. Fragments of glass were hurled in all directions, one of which struck a breast pin worn by the lady with such force as to break it. The burning oil was scattered over the carpet, setting it on fire, and but for the exertions of the members of the Hope fire company, who were promptly on the spot, a conflagration must have ensued. As it turned out, the damage was very slight, and strangest of all, Mrs. Duffy was not injured.

Death of a Stranger.

There was a death at the Allegheny Poor Farm yesterday. The victim was a young man, a stranger, who arrived in the city Saturday morning without money, and suffering severely from an attack of the fever and ague. He was sent up to the Poor Farm that morning and every possible medical attention given him, but yesterday morning about three o'clock he expired. He was about twenty-two years of age.

He had given his name as Mahlon M. Garlinger, of Hagerstown, Maryland, and said he had been on a trip West when he took sick and was unable to reach home.

His friends were notified by telegraph of his death and replied that they would come on to-day and take charge of the remains.

A Child Wedding.

A pair of youngsters, a boy and a girl, boy named Michael Ordall and girl rejoicing in the euphonious cognomen of Lavinia Waisdopp, were brought by their parents to the office of Justice Heisel, of East Birmingham, yesterday, when charges of incorrigibility were preferred against them, and the magistrate asked to commit the pair to the House of Refuge. The young people announced their intention to get married, whether sent to the House of Refuge or not, and from certain disclosures made then and there to the old folks, it was deemed best to let the children have their way. The Justice tied the knot hymenial, and the happy pair retired amid the congratulations of many spectators. The lad is sixteen and the bride fifteen.

Gibraltar.

This thriving village, located on the side of the hill back of the Union Depot, is rapidly coming up to the point when its claims on the attention of the public cannot be longer ignored. A large number of new houses have been built within the past year, and lots are being rapidly disposed of on which buildings will be pushed forward with all possible speed. Persons desiring to secure a home within reach of the business centres of the city, should bear in mind the auction sale that is to take place on Crescent street on Thursday, the 31st inst., at four o'clock P. M. Seven new houses, containing from four to five rooms each, besides a large number of vacant lots are to be disposed of at this sale, and on very easy terms. Plans of this property can be had from C. H. Love, Real Estate Broker, 68 Fourth avenue.

Serious Cutting Affray.

At a late hour Saturday night a cutting affray occurred on the Frankstown Road, in which a man named Jefferson, a teamster in the employ of Mr. W. H. Harris, was severely and probably fatally hurt. It appears that the injured man and another teamster named Stevenson got into a fight, during which Stevenson drew a razor and endeavored to cut his opponent. On seeing this Mr. Harris rushed in, together with others and separated the combatants. The razor dropped and was picked up by a colored man. Stevenson at once followed Jefferson out of the house and another altercation took place, resulting in the former drawing a second razor and cutting Jefferson in a dangerous manner, slitting open his abdomen. The wounded man was placed in a wagon and conveyed to to Hazlewood, but no physician being about, he was taken to Birmingham and Dr. Kerr summoned, who dressed the wounds, after which the injured man was conveyed to the house of Harris. While at Dr. Kerr's office 'Squire Krehan was sent for. He took down Jefferson's disposition and at once issued a warrant for Stevenson's arrest. Officer Philip Demmel proceeded to Hayti, and secured the accused and lodged him safely in the lockup. He had in his possession two razors and a pocket knife. Jefferson is not expected to recover. The prisoner was subsequently committed to await the result of the injuries sustained by Jefferson.

CHANGE IN WARD LINES.

Proposed Addition of Territory to the Third Ward Allegheny.

A petition is now in circulation among the parties interested, calling for a change in the boundary line now separating the Third and Seventh wards, Allegheny. The proposed new line is to run up the West side of Madison avenue, from Fountain street to the present city limits in the north side. This will add, a part of the Seventh ward to the Third ward, and it is contended by the petitioners that will be advantageous to the people in the territory thus taken in or attached to the Third ward, as they will then have a school house located much more conveniently for them than the Seventh ward school building; this is why they ask the change. The petition will be presented to Councils at their next meeting and doubtless will receive favorable consideration.

In this connection it may be pertinent to ask what has become of the project of dividing the Second ward Allegheny and making the "Hill District" a seperate ward? This proposition met with favor when first mentioned among the residents on the hill, but was opposed by a few on political grounds. As that opposition is now extinct, perhaps it might be a good time now to renew the old project.

Mr. MCCARTHY moved to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. KIRK said the resolution would save the tax payers of the city at least $25,000 per annum. He thought that its passage would go far towards carrying out the policy of retrenchment and reform.

Mr. RIDDELL said he was opposed to laying the matter on the table, as there might be something in it. He would therefore move that it be referred to a special committee of five, two from Select and three from Common Council. The motion prevailed, and Messrs. Riddell and Edwards were appointed from Select. [The resolution was not reached in C. C.]

COMMON COUNCIL.

H. W. OLIVER, JR........President.
H. MCMASTER........Clerk.

There was but a limited attendance in this branch at fifteen minutes past two o'clock, with a prospect that the few who had put in an appearance would disappear, unless something was proceeded with quickly, when Mr. Snodgrass came to the rescue with a motion that Council come to order by calling Mr. W. B. Negley to the chair, in the absence of President Oliver, which was carried.

While the clerk was calling the roll President Oliver arrived and took his seat as presiding officer.

The call showed a quorum to be present; subsequently other gentlemen came in, and ultimately the completed list attested the presence of the following:

Messrs. Albietz, Anderson, Arthurs, Barr, Batchelor, Belfore, Beymer, Black, Booth, Brown, Buffum, Caskey, Chalmers, Cohen, Dietrich, Duff, David L. Fleming, John Fleming, Lewis J. Fleming, Follansbee, Froelich, Galisath, Gilmore, Hammond, Hare, Hayden, Hauch, Evan Jones, J. H. Jones, Kinzer, Kohne, Kyle, Lageman, Lowrey, McGympsey, Mattern, McCandless, McKelvey, McKim, Miller, Moore, Morgan, W. B. Negley, Price, Raible, Rees, Rowley, Scott, Shoeb, Sims, Smith, Snodgrass, Wallace, Watson, Ardary, and Oliver, President.

On motion of Mr. Rowley the reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

In S. C. the communication was read and the next regular meeting fixed upon as the time for holding the election to fill the vacancy.

When the paper came up again, in C. C., Mr. JONES moved to concur. This matter had been sprung upon them and he thought Councils should have time to consider before choosing a new man.

Mr. MCCANDLESS moved to non-concur. Carried by a vote of 35 to 13.

S. C. recided and concurred.

THE PARK QUESTION.

Mr. MILLER presented the following paper:

WHEREAS, A large park, say 400 acres would have to be situated somewhere distant from the centre of population of the city, and be a benefit only to those owning property in the immediate vicinity, or to the wealthy portion of our population who could drive out in their carriages, and,

WHEREAS, The working people of this city would be obliged to pay a large share of the cost of a park, which would be of no benefit to them, for the reason, that in order to reach it, on account of its distance, they would be obliged to incur expenses which they could not afford, and,

WHEREAS, The people are desirous of having a park, and would be willing to pay for it provided they derive some benefit from it, therefore,

Resolved, That a committee of seven, three from Select and four from Common Council be appointed to select a site at each of the following points, for park purposes, viz:

1. At the Point, where the city already owns some 10 acres, which can be easily improved.
2. From 50 to 100 acres at Oakland, the site now proposed.
3. From 25 to 50 acres at a certain point called Herron's Hill.
4. From 25 to 50 acres in the immediate vicinity of Lawrenceville.
5. From 25 to 50 acres at East Liberty.

The committee to ascertain the cost of the above sites and report a month hence.

MR. MCKELVY,—(After the rules had been suspended to alow a consideration of the paper) moved to amend by including the plot of ground donated for the purpose in the Twelfth ward.

MR. ROWLEY,—I want one in the Eleventh ward, near Moore's brick yard. [Laughter.]

President OLIVER,—As there will be plenty of these amendments the gentleman will reduce them to writing, [Laughter.]

MR. L. J. FLEMING,—I move too that when all the amendments are in they will be laid on the table. [Laughter.]

MR. SMITH, moved to include one in each ward of the city.

MR MORGAN,—Include Negley's Run. Twenty-First ward.

MR. SNODGRASS,—Will the Seventh ward be included too?

MR. MCKELVY—Some of the wards might not want a park, and we should not force one upon them.

President OLIVER—Oh no, don't force it on them. [Laughter.]

The amendments were now handed in from which it appeared that a majority of the wards were anxious to have a little green "breathing place."

Mr MCCANDLESS moved to lay the original paper and all amendments on the table.

Mr. MILLER—I don't like this fooling. This is an important matter. If you want Parks, this is the best plan. It don't give all the advantage to the rich. The people won't laugh at it. But you'd rather pay a big price for one Park and it so far away that the majority of the tax-payers never could enjoy it. I don't think it is very dignified at all.

The motion to lay on the table was then carried, amid some merriment which reached a climax, when the gentleman from the Seventeenth ward, picked up his hat and left the Council Chamber.

Mr BATCHELOR, petition for idemnification for damages, to the property of Robert Steele by the grading of Penn avenue. Referred to viewers appointed by Court.

A POLICE COURT.

Mr. SMITH presented the following:

Resolved, That the ordinance Committee, in conjunction with our City Solicitor and Judge Stowe be and are hereby requested and authorized to prepare an act of Assembly to be presented at the next meeting of our State Legislature, authorizing the establishment of a Police Court, in this City, and that our representatives be urgently requested to have the same executed into a law.

Mr. HARE said the Police Committee had that before them now.

Mr. SMITH said the matter might be referred to them, in this shape.

Mr. COHEN, moved to amend by striking out Judge Stowe. Councils should not so stultify themselves as to ask a Judge to assist in making a law which he might be called on to construe.

The amendment was accepted and as amended the resolution was referred to the Police Committee.

THE CITY HOSPITAL.

Mr. MCCANDLESS [also a member of the Board of Health,] called up the report of the Special Committee on City Infirmary, which had been laid on the table a few meetings since.

Mr. CASKEY said the matter had been laid on the table and as two meetings had since intervened it was dead.

Mr. MCCANDLESS said he thought not. He urged the Councils to take some action in the matter.

The small-pox was insidiously making its way in the city and a hospital was needed at once for the patients, that in that way in a measure at least the epidemic might be stopped. If Councils thought nothing of the matter it was all right. But the Board of Health desired them to shoulder the responsibility.

The President read from the "Record" the report presented and the action of Council at the meeting July 10.

The report then had been in S. C. amended so as to provide for the purchase of a suitable site (instead of the Walter's Hospital as had been recommended) C. C. non-concurred and laid the matter on the table.

Mr. CASKEY then raised the point of order that the matter was dead as nothing had intervened since it was acted upon.

The President decided the point well taken.

Mr. MCCANDLESS then offered the report as new business and moved the purchase of the Walter's Hospital as a City Infirmary at a sum not more than $20,000.

Mr. EVAN JONES was opposed to the purchase of the Walter's Hospital. It was not in a good location. It was a very densely populated district of the city. There was no proper drainage there; the hospital was not worth anything, as it was an old and "rotten tumble down" building. He thought they should select a site outside the city where no one would be disturbed, and in a district where drainage and pure air and pure water could be had.

Mr. MCCANDLESS said he was not urgent for any one site. He only wanted a hospital for those people afflicted with the disease. Councils must take some action or be direlect in duty.

Mr. COHEN favored the adoption of measures for cleaning the city—the appointment of a committee to have the streets swept and to have other sanitary measures taken for the purification of the city, and thus prevent the spread of the disease. This was a more important matter than "parks" or water commissions or anything of that sort.

MR GILMORE (member of the Board of Heath, also) in reviewing all the action of Councils in the matter, said the Board of Health had no power to make any purchase for a hospital, except in connection with a quarantine. Councils could give them that right, and that is what they asked.

FLOATING HOSPITALS.

Mr. BATCHELOR presented a resolution, authorizing the Board of Health to purchase a boat and anchor it in either the Allegheny, Ohio or Monongahela river, to be used as a hospital for small-pox patients as long as in their judgment it was needed.

Several amendments were made to the resolution, and finally in this shape it was passed.

Resolved, That the Board of Health be, and they are hereby authorized, to buy or hire a boat or boats and locate a floating hospital or hospitals in some place on the Monongahela, Allegheny or Ohio rivers, and keep and maintain the same until such time as the Board may consider that all danger from prevailing diseases is passed.

CLEANING THE STREETS.

Mr. COHEN, (the regular order of business being suspended) offered the following:

Resolved, That the Street Committee be authorized to use such additional means as they deem prudent for the more efficient cleansing of our city, with a view to prevent the further spread of any epidemic disease, and to draw on the Contingent Fund for any such additional expenses as may be incurred, if necessary.

Read three times and passed.

"PLACARDING" SMALL-POX.

Mr. MCKELVY offered a resolution requiring the Board of Health to procure placards and place them on all houses in which there was any case or cases of small-pox.

The resolution was voted down.

NEW SURVEYS.

Mr. BATCHELOR presented the report of the Survey Committee, showing expenditures for the month of July to be $760.23.

Report accepted and filed.

The business accompanying was disposed of as follows: Gazzam's plan of lots in Fourteenth ward; approved. Plan of grade in Tenth ward; approved. Plan of streets, between Allequippa, Robinson and Fifth avenues; approved.

Resolution for the purchase of twelve copies of G. M. Hopkin's atlas of the city of Pittsburh; read three times and passed.

THE STREET DEPARTMENT.

Mr. MORGAN presented the report of the Street Committee, accompanied by business which was disposed of as follows:

Ordinance for grading and paving Pearson's alley. Passed finally.

Report of viewers on widening Webster avenue. Referred back to Committee.

THE COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.

The resolution in reference to the appointment of delegates to the coming Commercial Convention was presented from S. C., and Messrs. J. H. Jones, James Verner and W. B. Negley were appointed in behalf of C. C. on the committee to select such delegates.

Adjourned.

JOINT SESSION.

The members of the Select Branch assembled in the Common Council chamber, when President Gross, of Select, called the joint session to order and explained its object—the election of a Water Commission to take charge of the building of a new water works, and the election of one member of the Fire Commission to fill a vacancy.

Mr. BARR moved that nominations for Water Commissioners be declared in order. Carried.

Immediately a scene of the wildest disorder ensued, and with many members yelling out the names of favorites; others endeavoring by frantic gymnastics with arms and head and feet to gain the Chair's attention; some varying the exercises by throwing slips of paper done up in wads at the clerks, upon which were the name of their nominees; still a favored few whose lung capacity and vocal superiority enabled them to pitch their voices above the prolonged howl and din—by such sights and sounds, the President was greeted, and notwithstanding a vigorous use of the gavel, it was fully five minutes before the excitement somewhat calmed and a semblance of order reigned.

The nominations were then proceeded with in comparative silence.

When all had been given in, a motion was made to proceed at once with the elections.

Mr. BURGWIN suggested that it would be better first to settle about the terms for which the candidates would be elected. They were to be chosen for one, two, three and four years, but in making nominations no provisions had been made as to which term the candidate had to be chosen for.

Mr. BATCHELOR moved that the persons having the highest number of votes be declared the first choice—four years—the next highest—three years—and so till all had been chosen.

This motion was carried.

DESIRED TO WITHDRAW.

Mr. HENRY LLOYD, who had been nominated, then said he desired to withdraw. He felt gratified for the compliment of a nomination, but if elected could not serve, as he had not time and could not see his way clear for devoting the requisite amount of attention to it that would be necessary. He could not take the position.

Mr. MCCARTHY hoped the gentleman's request would not be granted. As Chairman of the Water Committee he had experience, and his integrity, business tact and energy were just what was desired for the Commission. If elected, he had no doubt Mr. Lloyd would find the time to attend to the duties of the position.

Mr. ARTHURS moved that the withdrawal of Mr. Lloyd be allowed.

Mr. BATCHELOR thought as the present Chairman of the Water Committee he would be a member of the Commission anyhow.

THE CHAIRMANSHIP.

Mr. BURGWIN explained that this was a mistake, that the ordinance did not make the chairman of the Water Committee a member of the Commission, but made the member of Select Council elected to the Commission the chairman of the Water Committee—a distinction with considerable of a difference.

Mr. BATCHELOR contended this was a mistake, and cited the printed ordinance creating the Commission in support of his position.

Mr. BURGWIN rejected the printed copy, and called for the original.

Mr. MCCANDLESS—Oh, we can settle it by electing Mr. Lloyd, and then there'll be no trouble.

Mr. MCCARTHY moved to elect Mr. Lloyd at once and by acclamation, which was carried unanimously before the gentleman honored could make opposition.

Calls were now heard from every part of the room for the reading of the list of candidates, but before the clerks could comply

Mr. RIDDELL withdrew the name of Mr. S. J. Wainwright. Accepted.

Mr. LLOYD, (evidently effected but firm), I do feel, Mr. Chairman, thankful for the expression of the confidence of Councils as given, but I cannot except the position to which I have been elected. I can't do it. It's hard to say No to so many, and so urgent friends and I would like to serve the City, if I could but I can't do it in this matter. I could not give it the attention which conscientiously I think it should have. It's a great and important work and I feel that others should do it who have more time.

There still seemed to be a disposition not to relieve him, when

Mr. COHEN said—"This thing is descending into

"A FARCE."

I think the resignation of Mr. Lloyd should be accepted. We have already honored him by an unanimous election and he distinctly states, as he did at first, that he cannot give the work the proper attention. Now it is an exceedingly important matter to Pittsburgh this building of a new water works, and should be carefully guarded. Now let Mr. Lloyd withdraw as he desires it, and not force him into a work which he does not want.

Mr. MCCARTHY, who nominated Mr. Lloyd, then moved the acceptance of his resignation, which was carried.

Mr. MCCANDLESS withdrew the name of Issac Jones, and Mr. Hill Burgwin withdrew his own name which, had been mentioned.

COL. PHILLIPS ELECTED.

Mr. BURGWIN moved that as there were five persons to be chosen—one a member of Councils, and the other four not compelled to hold that position—that the four latter be chosen first, and then the member of Council elected to complete the list. Carried.

Mr. MCCARTHY nominated Col. Wm. Phillips, and moved his election by acclamation.

Mr. ISAAC JONES objected to this as unfair. He moved to lay it on the table. Lost.

Colonel Phillips was elected by an almost unanimous vote, Mr. Isaac Jones being the only negative.

It was then asked if he had been elected for the four year term, and a squabble ensued upon that point which continued for a few minutes, when President Gross said "certainly, he has been chosen for four years. There can be no higher vote than an unanimous one and Col. Phillips has had that—all but one vote. According to our decision he is the highest on the list, and so has the four year term."

Mr. MCKELVEY wanted to know if the Chair would entertain a motion to declare Col. Phillips the member from Select Council on the Commission, as provided in the ordinance.

Mr. BURGWIN said this could not be done as Col. Phillips had already been elected for four years and the member of Council to be chosen now was only to serve until January 1st, 1872, and after that had to be elected annually, his term only existing as long as the Council by which he was elected.

The President decided not to entertain the motion as Col. Phillips had been elected for four years.

It was then announced that the business before the Joint Session was the election of the remaining three of the four Commissioners who were to be first chosen! After that the member from Select Council would be elected.

Some of the members expressed ignorance as to how this was.

MR. BURGWIN, explained that they had one now to elect, as the representative of the Select Council in the Water Commission who was to serve until next January, and then a new election would be held,—the member so elected being chairman of the Water Committee. And then they had three more to elect from outside or from Council as they chose to serve for the respective terms of one, two and three years—Col. Phillips having been elected as the fourth year Commissioner.

Some of the members still failed to take in the situation and a lively squabble ensued, finally.

DR. GALLAHER,—moved that all discussion cease and that Mr. John Chislett be elected by acclamation as the representative from Select Council.

Mr. EVAN JONES was opposed to this. He meant to vote for Mr. Chislett but was opposed to this way of putting him through. He did not believe in "cramming" them with all members of Select Council. He believed in a ballot.

The majority of the members however seemed not to coincide with Mr. Jones, and Mr. Chislett was elected by acclamation.

Thus two out of the five members of the Board were chosen.

Mr. H. W. OLIVER, Jr., withdrew his name from the list of candidates. The list as revised was read over twice when the clerks proceeded with the call of the roll the members voting viva voce for the remaining three to fill out the Commission. The following was the RESULT OF THE BALLOT.

*D. W. C. Carroll	74	*P. H. Laufman	56
*S. Beymer	66	C. Zug	2
J. W. McDermott	4	John Harper	3
F. Slataper	26	J. W. Dalzell	32
White	3

The Chair announced Messrs. Carroll, Beymer and Laufman elected. The Board thus stands:

Col. Wm. Phillips	4 years
D. W. C. Carroll	3 "
S. Beymer	2 "
P. H. Laufman	1 year
John Chislett	until January 1st, 1872.

So the question of the selection of a Water Commission was finally settled.

THE NEW FIRE COMMISSIONER.

Mr. BATCHELOR then moved to go into nominations for Fire Commissioner to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Neeper. Carried.

Mr. JEREMY nominated Mr. George W. Wilson of the Seventh ward, and Mr. Snodgrass moved his election by acclamation.

This motion was carried and the joint session adjourned.

A regular meeting of the Allegheny Board of Health was held last evening in their office, in the city building.

Present: Messrs. Arrott, Barker, Bulford, Eggers, Jones, Hanna, Smith and President Blakely.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Health Officer Williams reported that he had received 500 copies of the proclamation of the Board, which were printed in the English language, and that the 500 copies in the German language were not yet finished.

On motion of Mr. Barker, the Health Officer was instructed to have printed one hundred copies of the ordinance authorizing the organization of the Board.

The Health officer also reported there had been 49 complaints entered at the office during the past week, and that he had notified all the parties on whose premises the nuisances were to have them abated. Report received.

He also reported that he had received the two hundred cards which were ordered by the Board to be placed on the doors of all houses in which there was any small pox. He was instruced to proceed immediately with the placing of these cards.

Mr. Hanna stated that he knew of a woman in whose family there was small-pox, yet who had a stand in the market where she was selling vegetables every market day.

The Health Officer was instructed to see to the matter, and place a small-pox card on her house.

Mr. Eggers thought a card should be placed on her market stall also.

Mr. Jones moved that a pest house be established in the city. After considerable discussion the motion was withdrawn.

Mr. Arrott moved that a committee on Finance be appointed. Carried. Messrs. Arrott, Eggers and Hanna were appointed.

Mr. Eggers offered a resolution requesting Councils to appropriate $1,000 for the use of the Board. Carried.

Mr. Arrot called up the resolution, passed at a previous meeting, requesting all school directors and managers of private schools to admit no pupils into the schools until they gave evidence of their having been vaccinated, and that no pupils be admitted where the small-pox was prevailing in their houses. He moved that each member present a copy of the resolution to the local school boards of their respective wards. Carried.

Mr. Jones moved that 1,000 blanks be printed for the use of the physicians in reporting all cases of contagious diseases. Carried.

On motion adjourned.

THE trains are daily bringing home the summer visitors who are tired of sea bathing and ready for work.

THE first annual pic-nic of the R. H. Smith Zouaves will take place at Friendship Grove, next Thursday.

THE late showers have done incalculable amount of good, as in many places the country was suffering for water.

A NEW thirty thousand dollar school building is to be erected on the site of Fort Mechanic, near Mt. Washington.

THE rottenness of the plank walk leading to Mt. Washington is causing many complaints on the part of those who travel that way.

IN THE Court of Common Pleas, yesterday, Judges Stowe and Collier were engaged with the argument list. The list will be resumed to-morrow.

ARTHUR NOBLE was in Limerick Sunday night and got, not only whisky, but a severe cut on the head. He was taken to Smith's drug store and his wound plastered.

A MAN named Miller, employed at McCully's glass-house, South Pittsburgh, was severely cut on the head with a blow-pipe, which fell upon him yesterday morning. Dr. McCord fixed him up.

A PIC-NIC will be given for the benefit of the St. Peter's schools, on Wednesday, September 6th, at Iron City Park. The children of these schools are all orphans, and the object is a most deserving one.

THE Evening Star, a neat little paper, made its appearance Saturday evening under the proprietorship of Mr. Wallace, who last season published the Programme. The paper is designed for distribution about the city and in the Pittsburgh Opera House.

THE body of Mr. J. H. Dunlevy, whose casual death by drowning we published an account yesterday, was caused by the firing of a cannon to rise to the surface, and was recovered on Monday morning. His funeral takes place at 9 o'clock this morning.

THE physician to the Penitentiary has been occupied for some time in extracting pins and needles from the legs of a prisoner. The fellow seems to be possessed with the notion that he is a pin cushion, and makes haste to put away every pin and needle that comes in his way.

THE contract for removing the columnar ornament or parapet on the Court House, which had became badly decayed, was granted, yesterday, to Messrs. Mills & Co., who will thus be afforded an admirable opportunity to illustrate on a conspicuous public edifice the real strength, durability add beauty of the artificial stone, which they are now manufacturing and applying in all suitable places.

YESTERDAY morning Col. George F. Morgan, who at the January term of the U. S. District Court plead guilty to an indictment for carrying on the business of a retail liquor dealer without payment of the special tax, was brought before Judge McCandless for sentence. The prisoner's counsel, Messrs. Pearson and Moreland, asked that sentence be deferred for one week in order that an effort might be made in Washington City to fix the matter up. Mr. Swoope consented to a postponement, whereupon next Monday was fixed upon as the time at which sentence will be passed. The prisoner was then remanded to jail, where he had been confined last Saturday after his arrest on a bench warrant.

THE Fifth avenue market house is now in full tide of operation. The opening on Saturday evening was quite a grand occasion. Every stall and stand was occupied, and so numerous were the patrons that before nine o'clock at night all had sold out clear and clean. Superintendent Kilgore and his able, polite and efficient clerk, Mr. Moore, were as happy as sun flowers, and both feel like "going back" on the old market place. Nearly all the first class butchers of the Diamond market and the gardeners and fruit dealers have quarters in the new market house. The appearance of such nurserymen as James Wardrop, Abraham McCree and others is a fair indication that the new market will abound in choice fruits. We congratulate our friends of the outer wards on the successful inauguration of the new market house.

IDENTIFIED THE GOODS.

How a Burglar was Detected in the Work House.

An incident somewhat out of the usual line of police news occurred at the Work House yesterday and led to interesting developments. A man known as Michael Collins had been committed to that reformatory and salubrious resort for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. It was observed that the prisoner wore clothing which was altogether too fine to be in keeping with his general appearance, and an investigation was the result. It was then found that the coat bore buttons upon which were stamped the letters W. H. McG. Suspicions had been entertained that Michael was the party who had been engaged in the burglary at ex-Commissioner McGee's residence in Allegheny a few weeks ago, and this search added certainty to suspicion. Ex-Commissioner McGee was brought to confront the new arrival and immediately recognized the suit he wore as one which had been stolen together with boots, shirts and other wearing apparel from the McGee mansion. Michael was dumb-founded at the evidence against him, but said nothing. An information charging him burglary will be made by Chief Clerk to-day and there is every indication that Michael will have an opportunity to test the virtues of solitude with Warden Wright for a limited period.

First Ward, Allegheny, School.

ALLEGHENY CITY, August 26, 1871.

EDITORS GAZETTE: An article appears in this morning's GAZETTE, headed "School Taxes, First Ward, Allegheny," in which the writer states that from seven to eight thousand dollars are collected in this ward for local purposes. The writer is greatly mistaken. The amount assessed this year is the same as last year, any variation from last year's tax is caused by difference in valuation (by Assessor.) Not having been on the Board last year, I will refer the citizen to the then Secretary (Mr. Marthens) or President (Mr. Borland) to explain why taxes were drawn.

The amount collected last year was	$5,089 68
From January 1, 1871, to June 1 warrants drawn by me amounted to	546 76
Leaving balance	$4,542 92

For what purpose these warrants were drawn and to whom given, I can show "Citizen" if he will take the trouble to call on me. The warrants from June 1st, 1870, to January 1st, 1871, were drawn by the former Secretary. In regard to their purpose and amount and to whom given, I will refer you to him. In regard to balance in treasury June 1st, 1871, that is if there was any, I will refer you to the chairman of the Auditing Committee (Mr. Nesbit,) whose duty it was to audit accounts at that date. Not having given in his report up to this date, I am unable to give you the information.

"Citizen" asks is there or is there not, a Ring in the First ward? I answer I believe there is, but it is outside of the School Board. Their headquarters are on South avenue. It is the Croakers Ring. Any Director or any boy can designate the individual members of the Ring. The office of President and Secretary being filled by the same person.

Yours Respectfully, R. PITCAIRN.

ALLEGHENY CITY, August 26, 1871.

EDITORS GAZETTE—Gentlemen: My attention being directed to some articles in your paper on the doings of the First ward School Board, my first impulse was to pass it by with silent contempt; after more mature deliberation I deemed it a duty to the School Board, the citizens and myself, to lay before the public the true history of the case and the true cause of all the hubbub among the spirits. For some years back the Directors have from time to time talked of a new location for a new school building, and some time ago a committee was appointed to select a site for the purpose. After looking about, it was thought difficult to find one suitable; the subject was dropped for a time but the idea was not abandoned. Of late it has been revived and in conversation with a citizen of the First ward on the subject he suggested as a good location for school purposes, a vacant lot running along South avenue, from School street to Nelson's alley, he believing there was no valid title except in the State, and if we could secure a State grant from the Legislature it would be a good and cheap location; at the first meeting of the Board after this conversation I brought the matter up for consideration. A majority of the board visited the premises and felt favorably impressed with the idea, believing if the ground could be secured to the ward for school purposes it would benefit the tax-payers, and that it is only a question of time as to the removal and building a school house, if not on this ground on more expensive and less eligible. When the spirits heard of the action of the Board to secure this ground if possible, not as to the cost of the contemplated improvements for school purposes, but forsooth it interfered with their visions of a grand Park and seriously affected their pockets in the prices of property, the almighty dollar being the moving principle among this class of spirits. If any man desired a demonstration of their public spirit, let him take a stroll along South avenue, and see the frog ponds. No doubt if they could get a general tax they would have a street graded and paved. The Park tax suits them better as it is a general tax. I do not believe the spirits can so hoodwink the people as to make them believe the improvements for school purposes so heavy a tax as making land and then putting on park improvements to increase the value of the adjacent property of a few spirits. As to the vituperation the spirits cast on me, it amounts to nothing; a persistent impertinence calls for insolence or something akin to it. I had heard the whole story of their wrongs, and could see nothing but selfishness in the whole story, and my mind, as a school director, was made up concerning the matter. I could find no law to compel me to argue the case in regard with any citizen, or to give audience to any spirit foreign to the interests of the First ward school. As to their aspersions about the ring, I am mistaken if one of them acting as medium don't know more about the ring than I do. For some time in the past year, if that spirit as medium would evoke the latent spirits of the ring he might call forth some manifestation of light on the enormous taxes. The restless spirits have been threatning for some time back, the final overthrow of the unruly members of the board at the next election. Be that as it may we will calmly await the shock; it will not alter our mind or change our purpose in regard to the best interest of the School. I am inclined to think I pay as much taxes as any of the malcontents. While I admit the taxes are burdensome, yet I do not feel justifiable in compromising the cause of education, to satisfy the cupidity or vain glory of any spirit in getting up parks to exalt the surroundings of the few at the expense of all the tax-payers of the city.

POLICE NOTES.

Brief Mention of Yesterday's Criminalities.

Sarah Thompson instituted two suits against Eliza Caugher before Alderman Strain—one for assault and battery and the other for surety of the peace. Mrs. Thompson accuses Eliza of having struck her on the head with a broom-handle on Saturday, with having beaten and abused her (the prosecutrix') children, and also with having made threats against her. The parties are residents of Minersville. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

F. R. S. Davis made an information before Mayor Callow, charging George A. Free with the larceny of a gold chain and a silver watch, valued at $35. The property was taken from the house where the prosecutor boards, and it is presumed by him that the accused is the party who stole it. A warrant issued.

An assault and battery is alleged against Elizabeth Leibert by Nancy A. Cunningham, who states that accused delivered a billet of wood with fearful precision upon her body. Mayor Callow issued a warrant.

A Bohemian, named Max Boucock, preferred a charge of aggravated assault and battery against John Walker. The parties work at a mill near Girty's Run as rollers, and plaintiff states to Alderman Bolster, of Allegheny, that on Saturday afternoon they disputed about some trifling matter pertaining to their labor, when Walker seized an iron tongue and struck him a terrible blow on the head. A warrant was issued.

Hattie Miller, for vagrancy, was consigned to the work house for ninety days by Mayor Callow.

Alderman Arent, of Allegheny, entertained the complaint of Bernhart Miller against a party of boys named Joseph Illingberger, James Agnew, Theodore and Henry Dickenbach, Jos. Gersach and Charles Gerling, for malicious trespass. The defendants are all boys of from twelve to sixteen years of age, and are accused of having entered the grounds of Mr. Fackiner, in Reserve township, and after eating as many grapes as they could, pulled up the stalks and damaged the shrubbery generally.

Before 'Squire Ammon, Mrs. Maria Yonker made information charging John Fox with disorderly conduct and assaulting his wife. The two families occupy one house, and on Sunday afternoon Fox came home intoxicated, imposed upon his family and proceeded to break the furniture. Taking a resting spell, he resumed operations about seven o'clock, or as the family were about going to church, using improper language, assaulting his wife, throwing her violently to the floor, and shamefully ill-using her. Warrant issued.

A man named Phillip Brady came before Mayor Brush and made an information for aggravated assault and battery against seven parties, named John Coyne, Michael Conley, John Conley, Edward Riley, Martin Conley, Michael Holland and Michael Gibbons. Brady alleges that the defendants all attacked him in Frankstown on Saturday evening, knocking him down, striking him with a brick and beating and abusing him in a most outrageous manner. Officers have been dispatched in search of the accused parties.

John Kelly was charged before Alderman Strain, by Margaret Keller, with assault and battery and surety of the peace. It is alleged that Kelly struck the husband of Mrs. Keller in the mouth with his fist, and that he also made threats of personal injury toward the deponent. Warrant issued.

Alderman Strain required P. G. Haynes to give bail for his appearance at court to answer a charge of larceny as baille preferred by Myers Updegraff. It is alleged by Updegraff that the accused collected a sum of money for him and refused to pay over the same when a demand was made.

Updegraff also made an information before the same Magistrate charges Hynes with assault and battery. It appears that on last evening, just previous to the hearing in the above case the prosecutor met the accused on Fifth avenue, when Hynes struck him on the jaw. Held for hearing.

FIFTH WARD SCHOOL.

The New School Property—A Beautiful Location—A New Building Contemplated—Officers, Principal and Teachers of the Schools.

Since the division of the Third and Fifth ward schools the Board of Directors of the latter ward have been actively engaged in the work of providing school facilities for their district. To this end they commenced negotiations for the purchase of property, which a short time ago resulted in their obtaining possession of the lot and buildings on Webster avenue, at the head of Seventh avenue. This property was purchased from its recent owners, Messrs. Rinehart & Bro., for the sum of $10,500. The lot has a frontage on Webster avenue of seventy-six feet, and a depth of one hundred and twenty feet. The building is sixty feet front by twenty-five feet deep. Since the transfer of the property workmen have been engaged in building an additional structure, which is now nearly completed, and before the close of the present week the school rooms will be ready for occupancy. The building contains six school rooms, all of which have been thoroughly renovated, and now look as cozy and comfortable as any school boy or girl could desire. The Board purchased the seats, desks, and other furniture formerly used in the Fourteenth ward school house, which will afford ample accommodations for the present. The schools will be opened next Monday morning.

The Board of Directors of the Fifth ward schools is constituted as follows: President, John Magee; Secretary, Thomas Farrell; Treasurer, Patrick Clark. The remainder of the Board consists of Messrs. A. B. Hayden, C. B. Strain, and Thomas Murphy.

The following teachers have been selected: Principal—J. C. Dolan. Teachers—Misses Maggie McElroy, Mary McElroy, Maggie Paull, Mary Bemford, Martha Newmount, Bella McClean.

It is the intention of the school authorities of the ward, as soon as the necessary funds can be raised, to erect a fine building on the rear of the lot. As the space in the rear of the old building is about sixty feet in depth, the new structure can be erected without tearing away the old one, and the schools can therefore be continued without interruption.

The elevated position of the lot makes it one of the most delightful sites for a school building in the old city. When the proposed new building has been finished and the old one removed, there will remain a vacant space of seventy-six feet by sixty feet deep, which, when adorned with shrubbery, will present a very fine appearance. We think the Directors did well in making the purchase, and they are entitled to praise not only for the good judgment displayed by them in buying the property, but for the energy they have shown in providing school accommodations for the children of the ward.

THE GRATEFUL AND INVIGORATING influence of RANKIN'S "FERRATED ELIXIR OF BARK," adapts it particularly to persons enfeebled by sickness or exposure, the influence of which it is composed being the most energetic of anti-periodics. In low states of the system it will be found invaluable. Prepared by ALFRED J. RANKIN, Apothecary, 45 Sixth street, Under St. Clair Hotel, Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH TEACHER'S INSTITUTE.

Third Annual Session—A Small Gathering—And Deficient Arrangements—Better Things Hoped For To-day.

The third annual session of the Pittsburgh Teacher's Institute was commenced in the Ralston school house, Penn street, Tenth ward, yesterday afternoon.

The attendance may have been remarkable for quality; it certainly was not so in quantity—that is numbers.

Superintendent Luckey seemed to think so for when the hour for the opening exercises came he declined favoring the few in attendance with his inaugural address and that was postponed for a better time.

Prof. Harrison, of the Minersville School, and Miss Jennie Ralston, of the High School, were chosen Secretaries.

Inquiries were then made for the Chairman of the Executive Committee, Prof. Crumb, but the crumb of comfort in that direction could not be found.

It was then explained that the duty of preparing work for the Institute had been left with the Committee, which in turn had delegated the duty to Prof. Crumb. Hence the vexation caused by his absence. No programme had apparently been prepared, but it was understood that several distinguished educators from abroad would be in attendance to give variety to the proceedings. The distinguished educators, however, were like many of the teachers—somewhere else.

In this dilemma Professors Burtt and Harrison entertained the teachers with a discussion, upon school topics which was also participated in by a few others of the Institute force.

Then a recess was taken until evening.

The evening session was a resume of the discussion interspersed with an essay, and several musical selections, and spiced with a few personalities in which the Executive Committee suffered most. The Institute then adjourned until this morning at nine o'clock, the announcement previously being made that the Executive Committee would have business arranged in proper form for to-day. To this end the Executive Committee were at work diligently at last accounts.

The Institute—if there is an attendance—will be in session several days. It is expected that the imported talent will be on hand to-day to assist. It is also possible there will be a larger attendance, as the rule of finding absentees, as prescribed by law is to be put into force. Probably through this gentle influence the teachers will be wrought up to a proper degree of professional pride and enthusiasm, in which case there is no reason why the Institute shall not prove both pleasant and profitable.

PROGRAMME OF THE PITTSBURGH TEACHERS' INSTITUTE, NOW IN SESSION AT THE RALSTON SCHOOL HALL, FOR TUESDAY, AUGUST 29TH, 1871:

Morning Session.—9½ o'clock—Philosophy in Education by Prof. Armstrong of Oswego. Discussion on the lecture. Nomination of officers of the Institute and of Committee on Permanent Certificate. Annual address of City Superintendent, George J. Lucky, Esq. Readings by Miss Garfield.

Afternoon Session.—Lecture by Prof. Armstrong. Discussion on the Lecture. Lecture on School Exhibitions, by A. Burtt. Discussion on Lecture. Readings by Miss Garfield.

BOGUS CHECKS.

A Sharp Young Gentleman Operating in Allegheny.

A young man has been operating in Allegheny with forged checks and orders, by which he has driven a pretty good business. He succeeded in getting a pair of boots at Hays, and a hat at Pratt's, by forging the names of responsible parties to orders. He then attempted to secure $25 cash by forging the firm name of Bailiff & Brown to a request for a loan of the amount, but Mr. Jenkinson of the firm of Jenkinson & Co., tobacconists, to whom the order was presented, suspected something, and told the boy who brought it he had no money. He then followed the lad and saw him give the paper to a young man standing on the steps of the Girard House. Messrs. Bailiff and Brown were notified of the fraud, and the result was a search for the forger, who had disappeared. They found him however in a store on Federal street, but he ran at their approach. After an exciting chase of several squares, over the Hand street bridge and back again, he was captured, when he immediately demanded to see the warrant for his arrest. This legal flank movement had the desired effect and he was liberated. An information however was made against him, and the police are on his track again.

It is supposed he is the same Smith who succeeded in obtaining a small amount of cash by a forged check on the German National Bank, signed by Roger Sweeney. This he negotiated at William Cooper & Co., Liberty street.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

A Man Has His Skull Crushed on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

A man named Joseph Nickline was killed yesterday by a train on the Pennsylvania railroad. Coroner West held an inquest on the body, at which the following facts were elicited: The deceased, a furnace setter in the employ of Coleman, Rahm & Co., came to the Round House in the Twelfth ward about noon for the purpose of coming down town on a train. The train which he expected to board soon came along, and Nickline, in the attempt to jump on a car while the train was in motion, fell to the track, a car wheel striking him on the back part of the head, crushing the skull. When taken up, a moment after the accident, the man was quite dead, and it was though he was killed instantly. The jury rendered a verdict to the effect that the deceased was accidentally killed.

Nickline was aged about thirty-seven years, and was a married man, his wife and children residing on Henry avenue, Thirteenth ward.
